

		-
				•
				_
*
		•	_
	,		6
				•
•			•
		•	,
- (

			eş:
•
				103
	>- - -

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2011 with funding from LYRASIS Members and Sloan Foundation

http://www.archive.org/details/bizarre1906leba

BIZARRE

Volume VII. Class 1906

377705 1906 cap3

Respectfully and Affectionately We Dedicate

The 1906 Bizarre

To Our Worthy Teacher and Friend,

Prof. John Evans Lehman, A. M.

_ 3 _

John Evans Lehman

JOHN EVANS LEHMAN was born near Lititz, Lancaster county, September 11, 1850. He is of Welsh descent on his mother's side, and of German on his father's side. The nearest approach to fame we have been able to trace in either family is Robert Evans, his great grandfather, who was nothing more than government surveyor, to whom, however, we might trace his mathematical tendency.

At the age of four the family moved to Avon, Lebanon county, where John began his education, as a mischievous boy, receiving his floggings thrice daily. As an inspiration to him in his school-boy efforts, his father at one time offered him a twenty-dollar gold piece, if he could succeed in catching his teacher with a difficult problem in arithmetic. He never received the twenty-dollar gold piece. By his mother he was bidden to sleep with his school books under his pillow, in hopes that he might in that way imbibe their contents.

At the age of eleven the family moved to a mill, southeast of Annville, still known as Bachman's mill. Here he partly learned the trade of a miller and in the old saw mill sawed off a little finger, the absence of which is still evident. He continued his education at the "Heilig" school house, under the direction of such men as A. R. Forney, W. B. Bodenhorn, the late county superintendent of public schools, and the Hon. J. H. Imboden, all of Annville.

About the year 1865 the family moved to Annville, and John attended the town high school. Shortly after this Lebanon Valley College was founded, and the only building was the present Ladies' Hall. The growth of the school soon demanded an additional building, and John stood by as an inquisitive boy of fifteen when ground was broken for the Administration building which he saw destroyed by the fire of last December. He was employed as a helper in hauling bricks and carrying mortar while the building was under construction.

In the fall of 1868 he was employed as janitor in the College. The work then consisted in sweeping, bell-ringing, and taking care of the seventeen stoves, by which the two buildings were then heated. His contact with students and student life created in him a desire for an education, therefore at the end of the year he asked permission to enroll as a student and earn his way by doing only part of the janitor work. The request was granted and at the age of eighteen he entered the preparatory class of the college. His duties as janitor required him to rise at four o'clock in the morning to start the fires, and at five he rang the rising bell, statements which might startle a Lebanon Valley janitor of 1905.

In his Junior year he laid down his broom and coal-shovel and earned his way by tutoring. He graduated in 1874 at the head of his class.

The year after graduation he taught in the public schools of Schuylkill county in the times when teachers "boarded round." If his reputation as a teacher did not begin there, he made a name for himself as an old-time singing school teacher.

For the following six years he was chief forfeiting and re-instating clerk in an insurance office in Lebanon. In the year 1877 he was married to Miss Fisher from Hamburg, Pa. This acquaintance and courtship began while both were students at the college and was continued under greater difficulties than similar college affairs of the present day, for the social life of the school was very different from the present. The men were not allowed to stop and talk to the ladies in the halls, or on the walks, nor call on them in the parlor, nor take walks to Lovers' Retreat and other interesting spots. Even under those difficulties happy matches were made then as now.

The duties of a clerkship, however, proved too monotonous for him, and anxious to get into educational work he secured a position as teacher of Mathematics and Greek in Fostoria Academy, Ohio. He spent four very successful years there.

In 1885 he was elected to the chair of Mathematics in Western College, and to the Principalship of West Virginia Academy, and to the head of the Preparatory department of Otterbein University. He decided to accept the latter, and after two years of faithful service, he was called to his Alma Mater to fill the position he now holds—called to a professorship in the school which twenty years before he had entered as janitor. During the early years of his professorship he took a course in higher Mathematics under Dr. Wm. Hoover, of Ohio State University and later spent a summer at Cornell University, doing advanced work under Prof. McMahon. He is so well known in this section of the country that it would seem useless to give any detailed account of his twenty years of work here.

He has grown to be a part of the school. The students have always found in him a true friend and willing helper; always more ready to serve others than himself; obliging and kind almost to a fault. Kind and patient with an earnest student, but severe with the listless and indifferent, he is of a sunny disposition when all goes well. He has decided opinions of his own, but gives in gracefully when you agree with him.

He has a host of friends among the students and alumni of Lebanon Valley College and he is respected and held in the kindest regard by all who know him.

The Bizarre Staff

Editor-in-Chief, C. E. Shenk,

Literary Editor, Merle M. Hoover. Associate Editor, Ray G. Light.

Associate Literary Editor, Emanuel E. Snyder.

Assistant Editors,

Ruth M. Hershey, Ora M. Harnish.

J. C. Strayer.

J. C. Rupp.

Artists,

R. B. Graybill,

E. V. Hodges.

Business Manager, Paul M. Spangler.

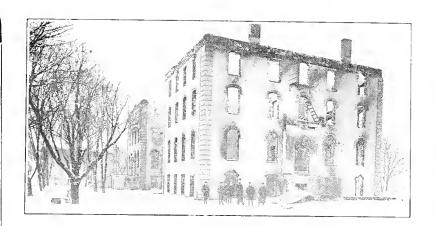

Assistant Business Managers,

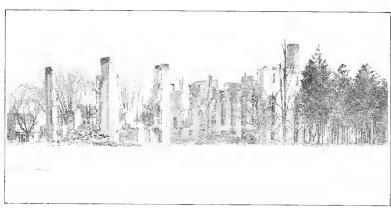

J. B. Hambright,

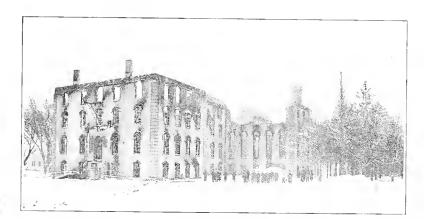

J. W. Kaufmann,

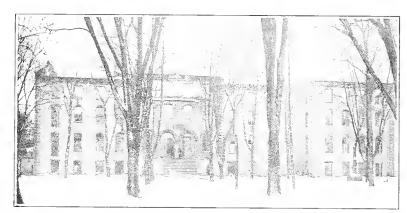

M. O. Snyder.

C. A. Fry.

RUINS OF ADMINISTRATION BUILDING DESTROYED BY FIRE DECEMBER 24, 1904

Preface

TO THE friends of Lebanon Valley, its faculty and its students, we extend our most hearty greeting. The Bizarre, as our predecessors will promptly testify is a large task for students to undertake, and if this volume shall be a source of continued pleasure and interest to you, our efforts will be more than repaid. The assistance given us, and the sympathy manifested for ns, ever since the beginning of our work, has been an inspiration to us in our arduous task.

We have tried to do our very best on this volume, and have endeavored to leave nothing undone which might prove an aid to its success. We have toiled early and late in order to try to produce an annual which will be a credit to the Junior class, as well as to Lebanon Valley College.

The Editors.

College Calendar

Fall Term-1904

September 12, Monday, Examinations for Admission Begin.

September 12 and 13, Monday and Tuesday, Registration of Students.

September 14, Wednesday, Instruction Begins, 10A.M.

November 24, Thursday, Clionian Literary Society Anniversary, 7:30 P. M.

December 3 and 10, Senior Public Orations.

December 22, Thursday, Fall Term Ends, 3 P. M.

Winter Term-1905

January 11, Wednesday, Instruction Begins, 9 A. M. January 26, Thursday, Day of Prayer for Colleges. January 27, Friday, First Semester Ends.

February 22, Wednesday, Washington's Birthday, a holiday.

March 4 and 11, Junior Public Orations. March 24, Friday, Winter Term Ends.

Spring Term-1905

April 3, Monday, Registration, 9 A. M.

April 4, Tuesday, Instruction Begins, 9 A. M.

April 14, Friday, Anniversary of the Kalozetean Literary Society. May 5, Friday, Anniversary of the Philokosmian Literary Society.

May 22, Monday, Senior Final Examinations Begin.

May 30, Tuesday, Memorial Day, a holiday.

June 11, Sunday, Baccalaureate Sermon by President Roop, 10:15 A. M.

June 12, Sunday, Campus Praise Service, 6 P. M.

June 11, Sunday, the Annual Address before the Christian Associations, 7:30 P. M., by Dr. F. S. Edmunds, of Philadelphia.

June 12, Monday, Commencement, Department of Music, 7:30 P. M.

June 13, Tuesday, Meeting of Board of Trustees, 9 A. M.

June 13, Tuesday, Junior Oratorical Prize Contest, 7:30 P. M.

June 13, Tuesday, Annual Alumni Banquet and Reunion, 9 P. M.

June 14, Wednesday, Thirty-Ninth Annual Commencement, 10 A. M.

June 14, Wednesday, Conservatory Concert, 7:30
P. M.

June 15, Thursday, Summer Session Begins.

August 22, Wednesday, Summer Session Ends.

Board of Trustees

Representatives from Pennsylvania Conference

Rev. E. B. Kephart, D.D., LL.D., Westerville, Ohio
Rev. J. S. Mills, DD., LL.D., Annville
Rev. W. H. Washinger, A.M., Chambersburg

Rev. John E. Kleffman, A.B., Carlisle William A. Lutz, Shippensburg John C. Heckert, Dallastown

Rev. Arthur B. Statton, A.M., Hagerstown, Md. Henry Wolf, Mount Wolf Reno S. Harp, Esq., A.M., Frederick, Md.

George C. Snyder, Hagerstown, Md. William O. Appenzellar, Chambersburg Cyrus F. Flook, Myersville, Md.

Representatives from Eastern Pennsylvania Conference

William H. Ulrich, Hummelstown Rev. Samuel D. Faust, D.D., Dayton, Ohio Benjamin H. Engle, Harrisburg

Henry H. Kreider, Annville Charles E. Rauch, A.B., Lebanon Rev. Henry S. Gable, Lebanon

Maurice E. Brightbill, Annville Jonas G. Stehman, Mountville Rev. D, D, Lowery, Harrisburg

Board of Trustees

Samuel F, Engle, Palmyra Rev. Isaac H. Albright, Ph.D., Reading Simon P, Light, Esq., A.M., Lebanon

Valentine K. Fisher, A.B., Berne George B. Breinig, Allentown

Representatives from Virginia Conference

John H. Maysilles, A.M., Munson, W. Va. Rev. Sanford D. Skelton, Winchester, Va. Rev. Sylvester K. Wine, A.M., Harrisonburg, Va.

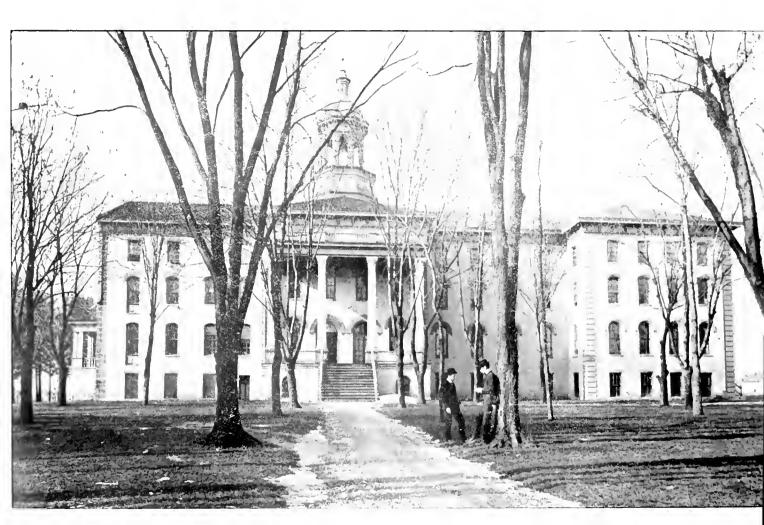

Edward F. Millard, Martinsburg, W. Va. Rev. J. R. Ridenour, Middletown, Md. Rev. J. N. Fries, A.M., Davton, Va.

Trustees-at-Large

Hon. Marlin E. Olmsted, Harrisburg Frank Keistler, Scottdale Warren Thomas, Johnstown Ezra Gross, Greensburg

Alumnal Trustees

Prin. H. H. Baish, A.M., '01, Altoona Rev. R. R. Butterwick, A.M., '01, Palmyra Rev. E. O. Burtner, B.S., '90, Hummelstown

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING DESTROYED BY FIRE DECEMBER 24, 1904

The Faculty and Officers

Rev. Hervin U. Roop, A.M., Ph.D., LL.D., President,
and Professor of Philosophy.

John Evans Lehman, A.M., Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy.

Rev. James Thomas Spangler, A.M., B.D., Professor of Greek Language and Literature.

Rev. Benjamin Franklin Daugherty, A.M., Professor of Latin Language and Literature.

Etta Wolfe Schlichter, A.M., Professor of English Language and Literature.

Herbert Oldham, F.S.Sc., Director of the Department of Music, and Professor of Piano and Organ.

Thomas Gilbert McFadden, A.M., Registrar, Professor of Chemistry and Physics.

Norman Colestock Schlichter, A.M., Secretary, Professor of French, and Associate in English.

Hiram Herr Shenk, A.M., Librarian, Professor of History and Political Science.

Howard Edward Enders, M.S., Professor of the Biological Sciences.

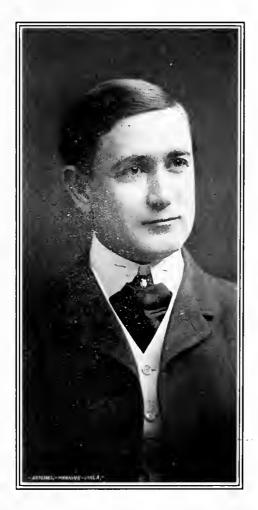

Rev. Lewis Franklin John, A.M., D.D., Professor of the English Bible, and Associate in Philosophy.

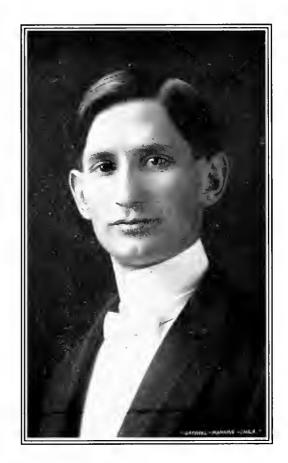

Samuel Hoffman Derickson, M.S., Acting Professor of the Biological Sciences.

Edith H. Baldwin, Principal of Art Department.

John Karl Jackson, A.M., Professor of Public Speaking, and Instructor in Voice.

Harry Edgar Spessard, A.M.,
Principal of the Academy,
and Instructor in Latin and English,

Wesley M. Heilman, A.B., Principal of Teachers' Preparatory Department.

Thomas S. Stine, A.M.. Instructor in German.

Emma R. Batdorf, B.S., Instructor in Elecution.

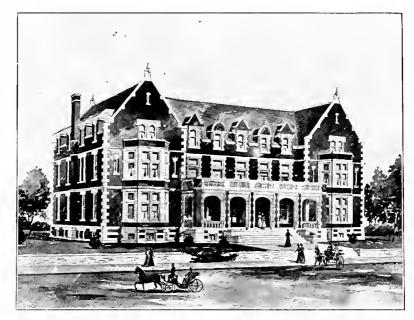

Charles H. B. Oldham, Instructor in Piano.

S. E. MacComsey, Instructor in Violin, Strings, Etc.

Reba Fisher Lehman, A.B., Associate Librarian.

LADIES' DORMITORY

Other Officers

Paul M. Spangler, Instructor in Bookkeeping.

Andrew Bender, Laboratory Assistant in Physics.

> John Gillis, Director of Athletics.

David W. McGill,

Alma Mae Light, M.S.,

Alvin Binner, M.E.,

Instructors in Teachers' Preparatory Department

Special Lecture Staff, 1905-1906

Bishop E. B. Kephart, D.D., LL.D., Lecturer on Archæology.

Daniel Eberly, D.D., Lecturer on Philosophy of History. Bishop J. S. Mills, D.D., Ph.D., LL.D., Lecturer on Sociology.

> W. H. Gotwald, D.D., LL.D., Lecturer on Apologetics.

Graduate Students

George Barber - Rewburgh, N. Y.
David D. Buddinger Bellegrove
Clarence V. Clippinger Mechaniesburg
Walter G. Clippinger Dayton, Ohio
Urias J. Dangherty Dallastown
Grant B. Gerberich Johnsonburg
Clinton G. Gohn Wormleysburg
William O. Jones Greensburg
Anna Mary Keller Philadelphia
David E. Long Millersburg
Lewis Walter Lutz Dallastown
Harry E. Miller Lebanon

Jacob Mark Peters - - - - Steelton

D. Augustus Peters - - - - Steelton

Jacob Hassler Reber - - - Waynesboro

David H. Scanlon - - Berrysville, Va.

Ottoman Schieder - - - Pittsburg

Edith E. Spangler - - - Lebanon

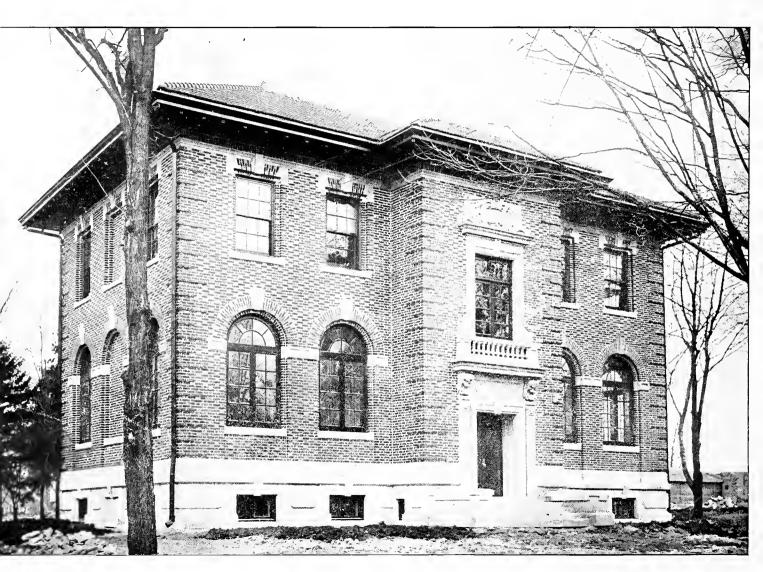

Alfred C. T. Sumner - - Bonthe, Africa

Raymond F. Swisher - - Port Clinton, Ohio

Adam S. Ulrich - - - Annville

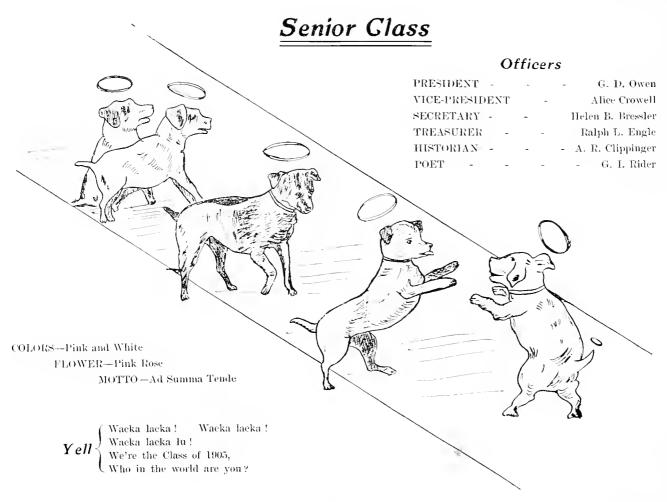

George A. Ulrich - - - Philadelphia

William M. Yiengst - - - Lykens

CARNEGIE LIBRARY

	Ġ.
⋖

Class History

It is with extreme pleasure that I hold before you once more the Historian's glass, in order that you may view the noble deeds of the famous class of 1905. If the lens should become clouded it is but a tear drop for those whom we have lost in our four years' journey, and who were unable to finish their course with us.

However, we are loath to write these last things, for our lot has been in pleasant places, and our fellowship has been sweet. Surely the smiles and benedictions of an Omnipotent One have been upon us, for aggressive movements have marked our pathway from its very beginning, and success has perched upon our every effort.

We would not have you think that our College days have been one grand, sweet season of perennial sunshine. In our course we have met with opposition, and diversities and crosses will serve as milestones. However, at times our pathway has been by the side of still waters and through pastures green. The flowers have bloomed about our feet, giving forth their sweet perfume to cheer us on our way. At other times our pathway has been along the steep mountain side, where rough and rugged seemed the path. The thorns and rocks pierced our feet, and we limped upon our journey. But, all in all, we have had more sunshine than shadow, more gladness than sadness, and more pleasure than pain.

While we close the annals of college life we feel that we are recording only the beginning of a broader and more complete life, for it devolves upon a just Historian to reflect the successes of the past into a still more glorious future.

Never in the history of our College has there been a class of more diversified talent. Every vocation is represented, while in the arts and sciences already we have won distinction. Some have felt the need of a still higher education and shall continue their studies in the universities and theological schools, as opportunity affords. Others feel the need of immediate work and will enter active life at once. But, whatever course the members of this illustrious class shall pursue, we feel that it will be a noble choice, and into whatever occupation they may enter, theirs will be success.

Many are the things in our College life that shall always shine to us as jewels in a diadem, and around which our memories shall cluster with sweet recollection. We would gladly record them but for lack of space we must recall them only as memory affords.

Here we must conclude the history of the Class of 1905, bitter though this task may be. We love to linger in memories halls and here and there eatch a glimpse of the sweet by gone, for the scenes of college life shine bright as the evening star, and day by day they dearer grow. But we dare not linger in the memory of the past for the future demands our prompt attention. Very soon, too soon indeed, the Class of 1905 shall be scattered as chaff by the winds of heaven. But whatever our lot may be, let us ever remember that we bear the imprint of our Alma Mater, and that our victories are her victories, and our defeats are her defeats. Thus as we go forth to battle with the realities of life, let us honor the sweet fellowship of the past by doing good in the future.

And with a sigh of regret we say farewell, and a fond farewell.

POEM

KIND friends and neighbors, all of you
Who are friendly to the White and Blue,
At last we come to say adieu
To kind professors and to you.

For four years, we can searcely think We've worn the Olive and the Pink. Today we're proud as we can be That we belong to L. V. C.

Our class, it numbers just nineteen; A better one was never seen. And in your efforts may you strive Like we, the class of nineteen-five.

We always did our very best,
And thought of this a day of rest:
Now all we see is work galore.
Work that we ne'er dreamed of before.

But now we've come to say adicu
To Pink and Olive. White and Blue.
Where'er we go while we survive.
We're loyal sons of nineteen-live.

Roll

Victor Arthur Arndt, - - - Valley View

Thomas Bayard Beatty, - - - - Quincy Helen Barbara Bressler, - - - Lebanon Arthur Rush Clippinger, - - Shippensburg Alice L. Crowell, - - - - - York Emma Frances Engle, - - - Hummelstown Rachel Naucy Kaufman, - - - Dallastown Ralph Landis Engle, - - - - Palmyra Titus Heilman Kreider, - - - - Cleona Elmer Ellsworth Erb, - - - Hockersville Pearl Eugene Mathias, - - - - Highspire Ellen Weinland Mills, - - - - Annville May B. Hershey, - - - - Derry Church Jesse M. Hostetter, - - - - Phœnixville George Dickson Owen, - Laurel, New Jersey Charles C. Peters, - - - - Altenwald Frederick Berry Plummer, - Bissell, Maryland Gordon I. Rider, - - - Mechanicsburg Benjamin D. Rohan, - - - - Dallastown Albert J. Shenk, - - - - - Annville

	•
·

Junior Class

OFFICERS

President-Ray G. Light

Vice-President Emanuel E. Snyder

Secretary--J. Curvin Strayer

Treasurer C. E. Shenk

Historian Merle M. Hoover

Poet-C. E. Shenk

COLORS Brown and Gold

FLOWER- Golden Rod

MOTTO--We die Saat, so die Ernte

YELL:

Ricka-Racka, Ricka-Racka Ricka-Racka-Ricks Lebanon Valley Naughty-Six

Class History

TO THE JUNIOR, he who is completing the third year of his college course, life presents a different aspect than it did during the two preceding years. He no longer takes delight in the almost childish pleasures of his Freshman and Sophomore years, but instead he now looks out upon life as becoming more stern and real to him. During the Junior year the student usually first feels that sincere anxiety for the completion of his college course, and yearns for the time when he will have graduated and will be allowed to test his powers among his fellow-men. Just as the youth longs for the period of manhood, just so the Junior looks forward to the time when, as a graduate, he may show to the world the strength and power which he has received during his four years' stay at College.

The Junior year is without a doubt the busiest year of the four college years. Not that the studies are more numerous or more difficult, for they are not; but because during this year he is usually flooded with what we call "outside work." These duties are not those of the class room, but are the many things, both small and great, connected with the other phases of active college life. During the third year the Junior is elected to the management of the various athletic teams, to the Forum editorship, to important positions in his society; everywhere he is given opportunities for leadership. The BIZARRE is also published during the Junior year, and this gives to each member of the class a great amount of extra work. Accordingly the average Junior is badly overworked.

We leave the BIZARRE as the greatest record of this year's work. Accordingly our class history will be brief. During the year, as a class and as individuals, we have held the high place among our fellow students which the class of nineteen-hundred-and-six has held during the previous years of its existence. We have had our pleasures and our sorrows, our triumphs and defeats, as in former years. During the year, laying aside the pranks of our Sophomore year, we have been gathering strength for the dignity which we must uphold in our Senior year.

There have been few special events or happenings to disturb the "noiseless tenor of our way" during this year. We have striven to get the most out of every activity of college life possible, and to give the most in return. We have been "sowing" those seeds of knowledge and culture which we hope will produce a glorious "reaping" when we, as a class, have left Lebanon Valley College. The Brown and Gold still floats over a class loyal to its ideals as a whole, and individually loyal to one another.

As we look back over the year, although the path has had its share of thorns as well as flowers, yet we are well satisfied. We believe we have been a credit to the College as well as to ourselves. So, pausing just a little while to look back over the past, just to profit by its mistakes, let us look forward towards the goal of success, which will surely be ours.

POEM

NOTHER year is past and gone,
Our College days will soon be o'er.
The four years' race will then be won.
In less than one year more.

We all have labored day and night
For to gain our knowledge;
We soon can hope for prospects bright,
On leaving dear old College.

We showed the Seniors what we do.
And took them out of town;
Served them with a real banquet.
And did the thing up brown.

There is much that we are proud of,
Many laurels we have won;
Many more will be our honors,
'Ere our college life is done.

-37 -

Charles A. Fry

HARLEY made his appearance in this world in the historic village of Bellegrove on September 6, 1884. He received his early education in the Bellegrove Academy, and after graduating with high honors he came to L. V. C. He is so eager for an education that he walks to school every morning, a distance of five miles, through snow, rain or sunshine-By his appearance one would think he will become a bishop, but as we study him more closely our belief is turned to the line of surgery. The most interesting characteristic about him is that he always wears the "smile that won't come off."

'06

Robert B. Graybill

AS born in Ohio on a beautiful day in April, 1884. Ilis early education was received in the public schools, where he distinguished himself as a student. Desiring to complete his studies he entered L. V. C. in the Freshman year. "Bobby," as he is better known among the students, is one of the best natured boys of our class, always willing to lend a helping hand. "Bobby" is quite a sport, this year having purchased two fine Shetland "ponies," and is seen exercising them quite often. He is quite an artist with his camera and spends much of his spare time in taking pictures. After completing his course at L. V. C. he will marry a Jefferson County belle, to whom he is now engaged. He will then enter the profession of photography. We predict for "Bobby" a bright future.

John B. Hambright

OHN B. HAMBRIGHT was born in Florin, Lancaster county. After graduating in all the educational institutions of Florin he took up work in the Mt. Joy High School, from which he graduated with honors. Next he directed his steps to Lebanon Valley and entered the College as a Preparatory Student. He does good recitation work and is exceedingly loyal to the interests of his class, both in peace and war. He is the healthful promoter of all things—is a member of the Philokosmian Literary Society, Y. M. C. A., Criminal Club, Pedestrian Club and the Glee Club. Quite methodical is Mr. Hambright, and he likes things neat and nobb(y).

'06

Ora Mabel Harnish

RA, the "Heedful," began her illustrious career on a farm about four miles south-east of Carlisle, Cumberland county. Pa., October 19, 1884. She attended the public schools for seven years. At the expiration of that time her parents, thinking she had enough of the experience of country life necessary to make her a good housekeeper, moved to Mechanicsburg. At this place she finished her high school education in 1902. While in her youth upon the farm there was a prediction made concerning her—that she should one day become the equal complement of a learned man. So in order that this prediction might be fulfilled she entered Freshman at Lebanon Valley in the Fall of 1902. We can conscientiously say that Ora is a good girl. She is always willing and able to give advice to such who need it. Her highest ambition is to become the wife of a theologue, but present indications point to the extreme opposite.

Elmer V. Hodges

E LMER is a son of the Sunny South. He was born at Winchester, Va., November 6, 1882, and attended the public schools of that place for twelve years, during which time he missed only eleven days. Apart from these facts, this part of his history is veiled in densest obscurity, though popular tradition at Winchester has it that he was one day sent home for kissing a pretty little girl across the aisle. After graduating from the high school he came to L. V. C., where he has distinguished himself especially in the study of music. He is a jolly student and faithful in his work. After leaving Lebanon Valley he will pursue his musical studies either at Oberlin or at Boston.

'06

Ruth Mary Hershey

RUTH MARY HERSHEY, one of '06's most industrious members, is a native of Derry Church, Pa., the town which is now becoming famous through Hershey's Chocolate. She attended the public schools of her native town, and then took up preparatory work at Lebanon Valley College. Ever since she has been at Lebanon Valley she has shown a good college spirit. Her excellent work in Literary Society deserves special mention. She shows encouraging interest in athletics, having been a famous player on the Ladies' Basket Ball Team. Music is one of her great delights. What her future will be the biographer is unable to tell; but we are sure that whatever she will follow, wherever she will go, Ruth will become famous.

Merle M. Hoover

of Chambersburg. The exact date is not known. Merle took his preparatory work at the Chambersburg High School, from which he graduated in 1900 as valedictorian of his class. Merle has an excellent ability for literary work, and has been appointed editor-in-chief of the Forum. He has won for himself the distinction of being the greatest "ladies' man" of the institution. Merle is so fortunate as to have a town girl—none other than the parson's daughter, who is his superior in stature. Frequently he can be seen going up to the parsonage, probably to assist the pastor in getting out his sermons. Merle intends to make teaching his profession, in which he will undoubtedly succeed.

'06

J. Warren Kaufmann

THIS erstwhile preacher, better known at L. V. C. as the "fighting parson," is a product of the region of the Mollie Maguires. He would not be a breaker boy, so his father thought to make a printer of him. But his moral nature rebelled at the thought of being a "devil," and he left the printing office to go to cracker-making in the City of Brotherly Love. Yet it was not brotherly love, but sisterly love, that constrained him to remain. Despite the tears and pleadings of the fair ones he quit cracker-making, a step he has often regretted. He came to L. V. C. to be made into a preacher and to be reformed of his one bad habit—a love for tobacco. It is said he will, in a few years, go to China as a missionary; but we venture the prediction that he will not go alone.

Ray G. Light

AY, the most fearless member of our class, was born on the farm near Avon. After teaching public school for several years he came to L. V. C. He is the most punctual man of our number, and is always first in examinations, especially in Latin. Ray is extremely fond of ladies, as is seen from the fact that he has eight engagements a week. His work as the Associate Editor of the BIZARRE, as well as his work in Literary Society and on the Forum Staff, has aided in making him popular. Ray expects to be a lawyer or a financier, and if it is possible for him to accomplish it by speaking the truth he may become both.

'06

Irvin Seitz

I RVIN came all the way from Maryland to Annville to take Philosophy and spooning. He expects to graduate in the latter this year, and follow that by a post-graduate course at L. V. C. and Campbelltown. He takes an intense interest in his meals, and takes care of "Lizzie" better than any one else could. His future is not as yet definitely planned, but he will likely continue his present work until a few years after graduation, when he may live as a retired gentleman.

Cyrus E. Shenk

YRUS E. SHENK, a native of Dauphin County, was born on the farm, whence he brought with him his manly and stern characteristics. Early in life he began to prepare for his chosen profession. A bound file of his first publication, the Deodate Chatterbox, is in the College Library. This paper was composed chiefly of poems, dissertations on science, and Bill Nye's jokes. The fact that Cyrus was always a man of money has been recognized by the fact that seven different organizations have made him their treasurer. His latest enterprises have been to assume the editorship of the Annville Journal and management of the College Forum and the editorship of the BIZARRE. Outside of a propensity for little girls he is free from any bad habits.

'06

Max Owen Snyder

AX OWEN SNYDER, the biggest member of our class, physically, was born at Liverpool, Perry County—a place famous, or rather infamous, for its crooked railroads and bad men. After attending public schools he came to Lebanon Valley College, where he is distinguished as an athlete. His generosity and good nature are only excelled by his admiration for a certain lass called "Char.o.te." His future is undecided between law and banking. If he chooses the former, he will serve as our President for the terms of 1925–36; if he chooses the latter, he will succeed J. P. Morgan as the financier of the world.

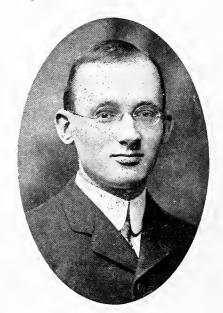

Paul M. Spangler

PAUL M. SPANGLER was born in the city of Lebanon. He graduated from the High School in '96. Then begins his checkered career, the most important part of which has been lost. Besides teaching in the public schools of the county for five terms, he attended Millersville S. N. S., Business School of Temple College, Phila., Lebanon Business College, Lebanon Y. M. C. A., etc., etc., before coming to L. V. C. In logic he has developed a most remarkable process for using the syllogism. He dispenses with the middle term, saying it is superfluous. He produces great arguments in the class-room. When his point is not received he claims it is a paradox, though the Professor hardly ever sees the truth of it.

'06

Emanuel E. Snyder

E. SNYDER first "hit the town" of Yoe, York County, Penna., on a certain bright and sunshiny morning, May 2, 1886, just one day late for taking part in the May-Day celebration. He spent his early youth among the green (tobacco) fields of his native county, and has all the characteristics of a genuine tobacco worm except its verdant color (he's not green, by any means). He graduated at the head of a large class from the Yoe High School, and then attended the York Collegiate Institute, from which he graduated in the class of '03" cum laude". He entered the class of '06, L. V. C., in its Sophomore year. He is by no means the largest man in the class, i. e. physically, and is the best example that we have to prove that "good goods always come in small packages."

John C. Rupp

C. RUPP is a native of Liverpool, Perry county. His early training was secured in the public schools and academies of that town. John is one of the members of the class who believes and follows what the Bible teaches. He was strict in upholding the passage in Genesis 2:18. He is prominent as a worker in Literary Society and is always loyal to his class. Ministry seems to be his call in life, and Lebanon Valley College looks forward to the time when it will send out from its ranks a second Dwight L. Moody.

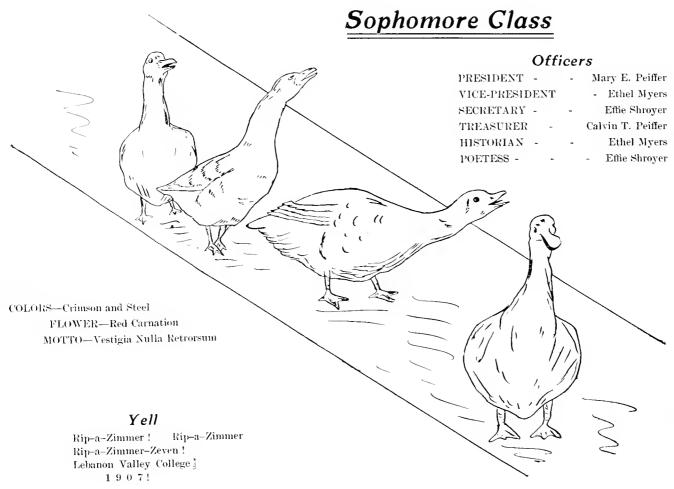

'06

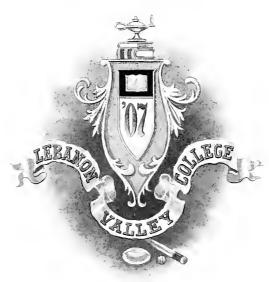

John Curvin Strayer

OHN CURVIN STRAYER, known in past years as the "wayward one," is one of the representatives of the much seen York County "Dutch." [He graduated from the Red Lion High School in 1902, after which he entered L. V. C. He has won for himself the distinction of being the most studious member of the class. Being the baby of the class we have felt it our duty to see that he has not been carried off by any of the girls. On account of bashfulness we had very little trouble along this line. This year, however, he concluded that he was old enough to look out for himself, and as all the rest of the Juniors had a girl he would have one too. So he chose a dark-eyed Sophomore. After completing his course at L. V. C. he will go to the Seminary, to better prepare for the uninistry.

NESTICIA NULLA RETRORSUM.

Class History

ROBERT BURNS long ago sang:

"Oh, wad some power the giftie gie us

"To see ourselves as ithers see us."

We do not have to wish for that gift; it is ever present with us. One word to the Juniors and Freshmen, and we see ourselves as others see us—at least as our enemies do.

This one year has gone very quickly. In our class many changes have taken place. There are some new faces and we miss some old familiar ones—our last year's base ball captain and the one who won renown for us in the cupola fight. Our college days go all too quickly; they follow each other in rapid succession, they bring all sorts of moods, all sorts of triumphs, but no days will ever be so care-free and happy to us as these days when it is given to us to do what we will with them.

Our record for this year shows a mingling of victories and defeats, which have never conquered our class spirit, which is still undannted.

You may read in the Junior records of the cupola fight, in which they succeeded in getting part of our flag, but you will hear little of the base ball score—eight to one in our favor. You will hear of the color scrap and the football game in the Freshmen records, but you will hear little of a midnight expedition which painted 'o8s in orange and blue on every convenient spot around the campus; but when the Freshmen awoke next morning, all their glorious 'o8s had been transformed by magic into crimson and steel 'o7s. You may not hear at all of the orange and blue tied around the top of every telegraph pole in the neighborhood, and then left unguarded for the Sophomores to take down at their leisure. They will no doubt tell you all about their sleighing party, and say that every person was there; but they will not tell you that two of their men were detained so long that they had to hire a sleigh. However, if you are wise, you will say nothing about the night upon which the Freshmen said the Sophs were to have their banquet.

Although we have no member of our class on the 'Varsity football team, we are well represented on the Reserves, on the basket ball team, on the Glee Club and on the Forum staff. If the members of our class do their best, working not only for their own honor but for the honor of their class, we may hope to see our class one of the strongest in the school. May the coming years be as full of joy and as free from sorrow to the members of the class of 1907 as the ones just past have been.

POEM

THE "Soph" year has been a happy one
To ev'ry one of us here:
The hard work which we have truly done
Fits us for the Junior year.

Sometimes we asked, "Why not all sunshine?"
Not loving clouds and showers:
Forgetting that thru these, Father Time
Adorns heaven kissed flowers.

Those once of us, now unnumbered,
We remember faithfully:
And welcome these who have come instead,
Like the first, doing nobly.

Comrades, winning our well-fought battles.

Leading in the van are we:

Knowing well that which too much rattles,

It often empty must be.

We heed the loving voice of duty
In our course at L. V. C.;
Filling her life and ours with beauty,
As God and man love to see.

What of to-morrow? veiled to keen eyes,
With its gifts of love untold;
We know we shall gain her fair prize
When the new day shall unfold.

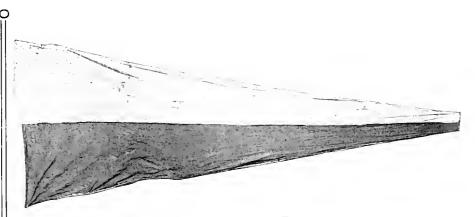

So, rush on, O Time, in thy swift flight!

Leave none behind on the way:
Bear each with thee in majestic stride.
To ev'ry successful day.

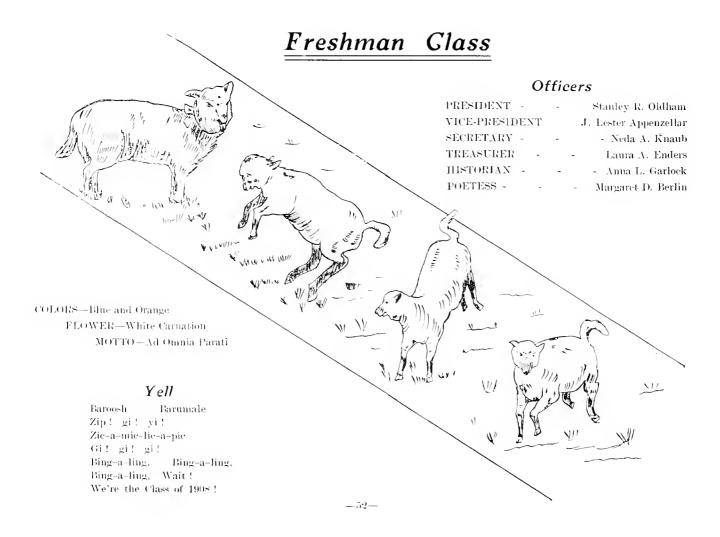

When L. V. C.'s portals, great and wide, Upon nineteen-sevens close, May she point with happy pride To us, 'mong the best she knows.

R011

	Elias M. Gehr, - Edward E. Knauss, - William Eby Herr,	Bird-in-Hand Cedar Lane York Annville Annville
H. Ethel Myers, John Fred Miller, Mary Elizabeth Peiffer, Calvin T. Peiffer, -	- Dayton, Oliio - Lebanon	Lucile Mills, Annville Maurice R. Metzgar, Middletown A. W. Herrman, York C. Ray Bender, Halifax
	Effie Evelyn Shroyer, Samuel H. Waughtel, A. K. S. Waltz,	Bradford Shamokin Red Lion Chewsville, Maryland Lebanon

HIS flag, which is in possession of the class of 1906, was captured by them from the class of 1907 in a rush on the cupola of the old Administration building June 8, 1904. The flag was placed on the cupola during the night and carefully guarded by 1907, who fortified their position on the roof by nailing the trap door leading to the roof. When 1906 discovered the flag they at once started to take it down. They battered and worked their way through the trap door and despite the efforts of 1907, they won the day.

Class History

NO OTHER class at Lebanon Valley has ever passed through a more successful year than the class of 1908 has done. We came to Annville as strangers, without the least idea as to who our class brothers and sisters would be. We became best acquainted at the reception of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. to the new students. At this time we discovered we were twenty in number, all from Pennsylvania except two from Maryland and three from Ohio. When the other classes gave their yells that evening they were very much surprised to hear one from the '08 group.

We have outgrown, earlier than any former class at L. V. C., the "verdancy" which has hitherto been such a striking characteristic of all Freshman classes, and which was remarkably lacking in ours.

Our class has been prominent in not only the religious and literary work of the school, but also in athletics. We have among our number two members of the 'Varsity football team, and the one especially distinguished himself on the gridiron, a member of the first basket ball team, and several members of the L. V. C. Pedestrian Club.

From the morning when the Sophomores hung the "verdant" dummy from the balcony until the present time, we have demonstrated that it will take a class much swifter and more spirited than the 'o7 one to down 'o8. In our class color rush we won a complete victory over the Sophomores, and at the end of the rush every one of our members still proudly wore the Orange and Blue.

The most exciting day in our career as a class was the day of the Freshman vs. Sophomore football game. The Sophomores, although they outweighed us, were simply outclassed. It took only a few rushes to show the supremacy of the Freshmen, and we won without any difficulty at all—the score being 29-0 in our favor.

At another time the Sophomores thought they surely would win over us, but we showed we were as always "ad omnia parati." This was the evening of January 30th, the evening of our sleighing party to Campbelltown. Some "little human beings," or Sophomores, got into our sleigh and rode as far as our meeting place, intending to go farther, but the Freshmen had not the same intentions. We gave them one look and they fled in mortal terror, leaving 1908, as always, on top

We are proud of our Orange and Blue, and as a class we are fully determined to be in the future as we have been in the past "ad omnia parati."

What our history as a class and as individuals has been in the past, is well known; what it will be in the future, Dame Fortune will decide. But we pray, with Tiny Tim, that "God will bless us, every one."

POEM

FROM hill and vale, last Fall we went
To gain a store of knowledge,
And came, upon this purpose bent,
To Lebanon Valley College.

Twelve lads we have, and lasses eight, Our number's just a score; And to our class each one of us Is loyal to the core.

"Ad Omnia Parati" is
The motto we uphold,
And may it ever o'er us be
In bright and shining gold.

We've carried through with noble zeal (I'm sure I'm not mistaken) And far surpassed all others In each thing we've undertaken. For better things we always look, To noble aims aspire; And on the ladder of success We're striving to climb higher.

We soon must close one volume Of our history as a class; Though brilliant were its pages, May the second still surpass.

We had, inside of two short months, Our verdancy outgrown; The same of any other class Has never yet heen known.

In all the circles of the school
Our members are expert;
And when "there's something doing"
They are ever on the alert.

As in the Present and the Past
We've been so staunch and true,
In Future we'll be loyal to
Our "Orange and our Blue."

Oh, Fortune, thou, most changeable, Who must decide our fate, Bestow thy richest blessings On the class of 'naughty-cight.

Roll

J. Lester Appenzellar,		-		-		Chambersburg
Margaret D. Berlin,			-		-	- Tyrone
Milton O. Billow,		-		-		Shermansdale
Lewis Buffington,	-		-			Elizabethville
Laura A. Enders,		-		_		Elizabethville

Eli A. Faus, -		-	-		Manheim
Anna L. Garlock,	-	Hag	ersto	W11,	Maryland
Roy J. Guyer, -		-	-	Shi	ppensburg
Roger S. B. Hartz,	-	-	-		Palmyra
Neda A. Knaub,	_	_	Net	v Ci	amberland

Sallie W. Kreider, - - - Lebanou Norman L. Linebaugh, - - - York Samuel B. Long, - - - Hays Grove Rufus E. Morgan, - - Valley View Stanley R. Oldham, - - - Annville

Vivian Powers, - - - Dayton, Ohio Vinton D. Singer, - - Dayton, Ohio Arthur R. Spessard, - Chewsville, Maryland Erma Shupe, - - - Dayton, Ohio Alice M. Zuck, - - - Annville

Special Students

Arthur S. Beckley Allen Beckley Thomas E. Beddow Arthur Edwin Bucke Harry K. Bomberger Clayton L. Brandt John I. Clay John A. Detweiler Jacob L. Graybill W. G. Goodman Mervin Jacob Hocker Lemuel S. Heisey John A. Hershev Frank Krimmel Beulah Lebo John F. Light Harry W. Light Eber E. Ludwick

Lawrence Maxwell Morris Mover Harry B. Mover I. Clarence Mover Simon Pauxtis William S. Rehrer Raymond F. Schaak William Shanor David D. Sheetz Frances M. Shively Sara A. Snavely Joseph Stanton Franklin Dyson Sweger Walter M. Swope David S. Sheetz Stanley A. Snyder Morris Umberger Frank P. Weaver

Academy Students

Bertha Adams Mark A. Albert Minnie Aungst Chalice C. Baker Harry Barnhart Irene Bicksler Lizzie Bæshore Florence Bæhm Lizzie Bomgardner Albert Sipe Breneman Samuel Roy Breneman Annie M. Bowman Abraham B. Brackbill W. A. Brunner Sherman C. Ditzler Oscar J. Ditzler Elizabeth Engle Richard B. Ernest Joseph Ellenberger William Otterbein Ellis Matt English

Clyde S. Erb Anna B. C. Ehrhorn Max M. Evans Estella M. Fasuacht Irene Fasuacht Harry Fegan Charlotte May Fisher Alvin E. Foltz Catharine May Gensemer Dorothy B. Goss Margaret Grav Ottis B. Gohn Vernou Grubb John Gillis Erwin M. Hatz Valeria Sue Heilman Adam L. Haesler Roy L. Harkins Clara Heilman Lizzie Henry Lawrence DeWitt Herr

Academy Students

Denver Herr John F. Herr Mabel S. Herr Minnie A. Hieks James Hipple George Nissley Hoffer Phares M. Holdeman Mark Holtzman Leroy Otterbein Holler Allen G. Horst Rex Kephart John Dwight Trefts John Carroll F. James Ammon H. Kreider Rhoda Viola Kelley Gideon Richie Kreider Edith R. King Isaiah M. Klopp Clayton G. Lehman John Lehman Edward W. Leech

Mary Lehman John F. Leininger Boaz Light E. Victor Light Grace Ellen Light Horace Light John A. Light Nancy J. Light Sara E. Light Oscar Light Henry Matz Iva Bernice Maulfair Laura F. McCormick Oliver Mease Barbara Miller Thomas C. Miller Amos B. Moyer Harry B. Moyer Harry Moyer Minnie Olive Moyer Mame K. Moyer

Academy Students

Lizzie Mover Constance W. Oldham Cecilia Louise Oldham Robert Owen Iames M. Price William Peiffer John A. Saylor Grace Belle Schaffner Mary Seabold Elizabeth V. Shaud Daniel O. Shellev Ruth A. Schropp John H. Sherk George W. Strine Annie H. Shenk Flovd Elmer Shaffer Herbert Soule Russell B. Stoner Robert A. Snyder Harvey D. Smith

Eva R. Spangler John H. Triest Ethel Henrietta Ulrich Katharine Ulrich Jennie Vallerchamp Raymond Wagner Ruth E. Weaber John H. Vogt Frank C. Witmer Mark Wert Anna Mae Wolf Elizabeth Willis Holden Warlow Blauche Wolf Florence Henrietta Wolf Mary Julia Wolf William K. Wolf Elsie F. Yeager John Yingst Helen Zerfoss

ACADEMY BUILDING-Formerly Ladies' Hall

Teachers' Preparatory Department

R o 11

William J. Bean Charles C. Bensing Irwin Bæshore Lizzie E. Bomgardner Ervin E. Boyer August N. Brubaker Harry B. Brubacher Elizabeth Clauser John I. Clay Julia E. Demler Noarth F. Ditzler Willis A. Dundore Cora G. Ebersole Joseph M. Ellenberger Genevive Eshelman Edward D. Fake Edua Felty Irene Felty

Stella Felty

Frank R. Fasnacht J. B. Funk Philip Getz Dorothy B. Gross Ida Groli Samuel B. Groh Mamie L. Hauer Clara S. Heilman Edith E. Heilman Katie E. Henry Minerva Adeline Hicks Irvin S. Hoffer John Hollinger Mark G. Holtzman Allen G. Horst Sarah Catharine Kalev Rhoda Kelly Clayton G. Lehman Boaz G. Light

Grace E. Light Harvey K. Light Harry W. Light Naomi R. Light Oscar S. Light I. Mabel Long Henry H. Matz A. A. Maulfair Harry Mease Mabel Mease Amanda Meily A. Mary Meily Irvin C. Meyer May L. Miller Samuel W. Miller Wm. E. Miller Mabel Elizabeth Moyer Morris M. Moyer Carrie E. Nye

[&]quot;In truth, he looks much like a farmer's lad,

[&]quot;Strong, sturdy, rough, yet neat withal."—E. E. Snyder.

Teachers' Preparatory Department

Roll (Concluded)

Katie G. Phillips
A. Kathryn Rank
Mary A. Seabold
Harry R. Seltzer
William Seyfert
Elizabeth V. Shaud
Daniel O. Shelly
Annie H. Shenk

John H. Shenk
John E. Shirk
Sara Alys Snavely
Abner G. Spangler
Grant B. Steckbeck
Cora E. Stoever
Harry Swanger
Pierce E. Swope

Morris M. Umberger Katye A. Walmer Raymond Wagner Sara J. Wagner Harry W. Walters Mark Wert Anna Mae Wolf Harvey Wolf

Claude Augustus Yoder

John Balthaser Yoder

Department of Elocution

R 011

Nellie Boltz
Clara Eisenbaugh
Edna Engle
Alva Fasnacht
Elizabeth Gallatin

Elsie Henry Valeria Heilman Nancy Kauffman Neda Knaub Edith Lehman Sara Light Viola Moyer Frances Shively Mary Stover Clare Wood

Naomi Witman

T. Bayard Beatty

[&]quot;Aim high, and your attainments will be great."—Hambright.

Music Seniors

OFFICERS

President—Ivan J. McKenrick
Secretary—Laura McCormick

Treasurer-Amy Gabel

COLORS
Red, Black and Gold

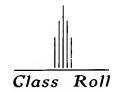

MOTTO

"Play Always As If a Master Were Listening."
Schumann

YELL

Wicka-Licka, Wicka-Licka, Wicka-Licka-Wicks, 1-9-0-5,

We're the Boys to Play the Tricks.

Herbert Crawford, Le	ebanon	Ivan J. McKenrick, Ebensburg
Charlotte Fisher,		Catharine Smith, Lebanon
Amy Gabel, Le Emily Johnson, Le		Kathryn Ulrich, Middletown
Laura McCormick, A		Blanche Wolfe, Lebanon

History

To enter a course of music is to enter something which is very uncertain for it depends largely upon the ability of the student and the amount of energy which he possesses in order to determine just what length of time it will require for him to complete his course. Accordingly, the class of Nineteen hundred and five was not permitted to organize until November of the preceding year, thus not giving an entire year to make history for itself.

Of our infancy the first and only thing we remember was the great tribute paid us at that time by the present Junior class. In that we are the first class of the Conservatory ever invited to contribute our class picture and other matter to their BIZARRE, we pride ourselves for this and appreciate the great honor to the fullest extent. Nothing so great as this has befallen us during our short life since that time, but should anything greater be in store for us surely we are equipped for the most and best.

Being true students of that great art, Music, naturally we dwell always in peace and harmony among ourselves as well as those about us. We have no enemies so far as we know, and no class rivals, so why should we not be peaceful and harmonious? "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in harmony."

In all the various interests of the college wherein students are engaged, our class has been fully represented. In it we find those representing the Literary department, a football man, tennis fiends and even some to represent the basketball team.

We are the largest class both in stature and number ever graduated from this institution. We number ten, and when each go out into the world we hope to fill ten places in such a manner as will do credit and bring glory to our Alma Mater.

[&]quot;I (will) awake one morning and find myself famous"—Plummer.

Department of Music

P.—Piano; V.—Voice; O.—Pipe Organ; H.—Harmony; T.—Theory: Hi.—History; A.—Analysis; Vi.—Violin; G.C.—Glee Club.

Students

Adams, Ano. Arnold, Elsie, V. Albert, Mark, P. Adams, Bertha, P. Bixler, Irene, V. Burkey, Lillie, O. Beckley, Mrs., O. Bachman, Virgie, O. Beatty, T. B., G.C. Berlin, Margaret, P. Bomberger, Emma, P. H. Crawford, Herbert, O. Coppenhaver, Florence, P. Engle, Frances, P. Enders, Laura, P. Eisenbaugh, Clara, P. V. Evans, Mark, P. V. H. G.C. Engle, Ralph, G.C.

Fisher, Charlotte, P. V. H. Fasnacht, Irene, P. T. Faus, Eli, P. V. T. Hi. Grav, Margaret, P. V. Garlock, Anna, P. Gehr, E. M., G.C. Gabel, Amy, P. V. H. Hi. T. Gingrich, Edith, P. Gensemer, Catharine, V. Heilman, Valeria, P. V. Himmelberger, Carrie, P. Haas, George, P. Heckert, Sadie, P. Heister, Lizzie, O. Hatz, Ervin, P. V. Hershey, Ruth, V. Hambright, J. B., G.C. Herr, Naomi, P.

Music Department

Students

Herr, Mabel, P. T. Heinaman, Frank, V. Harnish, Ora, P. Herr, DeWitt, O. H. Hodges, Elmer, O. P. V. G.C. Herr, William, P. Johnson, Emily, P. V. Hi. John, Rex, P. John, Dwight, P. Keller, Mame, V. P. H. Kauffman, Kathryn, P. V. Knauss, Edward, P. Kreider, Anna, V. King, Edith, P. V. H. Kreider, Louise, P. Klopp, Isaiah, P. H. Lehman, Max, G.C. Ludwig Eber, G.C. Lichty, Arthur, P. V. H. G.C. Leslie, Ruth, O.

Light, Sara, P. Lehman, Mary, P. Leslie, Jennie, P. V. H. III. Mover, Harry, P. Moyer, Lizzie, P. V. T. Mathias, Pearl, G.C. Meyers, May, P. Maulfair, Iva, P. V. Mills, Ellen, V. McCormick, Laura, P. H. Mills, Lucile, V. McKenrick, Ivan, O. G.C. Nissley, Bernice, P. Nye, Florence, P. Owen, G. D., G.C. Oldham, Constance, P. V. H. Oldham, Celia, V. Oldham, Stanley, P. Plummer, Berry, G.C. Patschke, Caroline, P. H.

Music Department

Students

Reiter, Susie, P. V. H. Hi. T. Reigert, Charlotte, O. Risser, Annie, P. Rojahn, B. D., G.C. Spangler, Ruth, P. Shively, Frances, V. O. Schaeffer, Gertrude, P. Hi. Stains, Bessie, P. Shenk, Annie, P. Stauffer, Laura, P. H. Hi. Singer, Vinton, P. Snell, H. R., O. Schnader, Mrs., P. Spessard, Harry E., P. G.C Snell, Lillian, P. H. T. Shaud, Elizabeth, P. Smith, Lottie, P. Showers, J. Balmer, G.C. Shanor, W. W., G.C. Spessard, Arthur, V. G.C.

Smith, Ella, P. Steiner, Bredella, V. Schaffner, Grace, V. P. Seibert, Florence, P. Spangler, Eva, P. V. Schropp, Ruth, P. V. Smith, Catharine, V. H. Hi. Stanton, R. G., V. P. G.C. Snavely, Sara, P. Ulrich, Kathryn, P. V. Hi. Vallerchamp, Jennie, P. Willis, Elizabeth, P. Walter, Mabel, P. Walbron, Mrs. John, V. Witman, Mabel, P. Wolf, Florence, P. T. Wolf, Mary, P. V. Weaber, Ruth, V. Wolfe, Blanche, P. V. H. Hi. T. Wolf, W. K., G.C.

Department of Art

Students

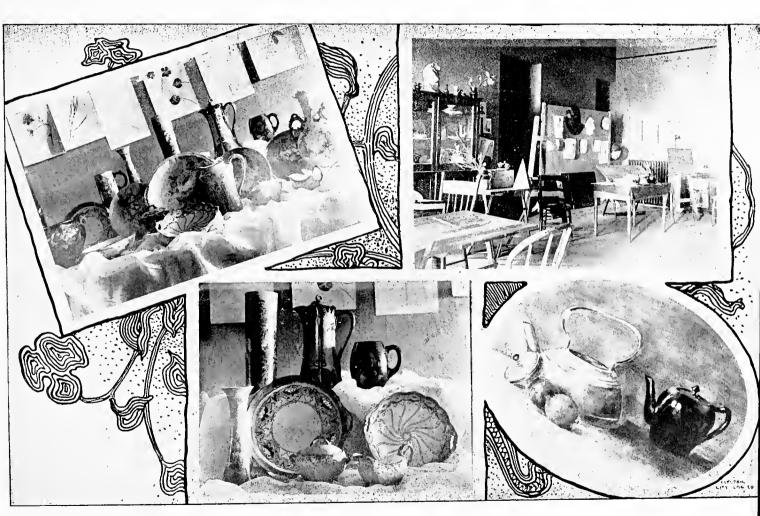

Annie Aungst Rosa Bachman Emma R. Batdorf Mary C. Batdorf Irene Bicksler Florence S. Boehm Mattie Bomberger Helen Brightbill Elizabeth Brotherline M. A. Blazier Elsie Condron M. Edna Engle Frances Engle Elizabeth Engle Laura E. Enders Charlotte Euston Lillian Feese

Emma Gettel

Alice Gruber Sara Elizabeth Helm Caroline Mae Hamaker Martha B. Henry John Hunsicker Annie E. Kreider Ida Kreider Sallie Kreider Mary Keller Ruth M. Leslie Mattie Lesher Alma Mae Light Iva Light Jessie Light Emily E. Loose Emma Loos Mrs. Mark Allan Meyer

May Meyer Sarah E. Musser Mary Maulfair Alice Mower Elizabeth Rebstock Mrs. C. P. Saylor Bertha Schools Katharine Schools Mrs. Schwenk Rachel Shenk Sara Snavely Mary Stine Dyson Sweger Josephine Urich Elizabeth Van de Sande Florence Wolf Olive Walters Elizabeth Yordy

[&]quot;Two women placed together make cold weather."—Effie Shroyer.

THE ART DEPARTMENT

The Christian Associations

THIS YEAR has been one of great religious activity in our little college world. The moral tone of Lebanon Valley College has always been high, and this year has been no exception to the rule. The year has been one in which there was a tendency towards a deeper religious feeling among the colleges throughout our land, and our school also felt this impulse towards higher and better things.

During the year the weekly prayer meetings were well attended, and the student-body was greatly benefitted by these regular meetings.

The Y. W. C. A. has had a very successful year. Two delegates were sent to Silver Bay—Misses Mabel Spayd and Ora Harnish. Regular weekly meetings were held and great profit and good was received from them.

The Y. M. C. A. this year has had one of the largest membership rolls during the history of the Association in our College. Three men were sent to Northfield, Massachusetts—M. O. Snyder, E. E. Snyder and J. C. Strayer. The fire greatly interfered with some of the plans of this year's administration and they had to be dropped, greatly to the disappointment of the Association. Under the administration of this year the meetings met with great success; they were well attended, interesting and helpful.

Under both Associations Bible and Mission Classes were held for instruction along both of these important lines. Joint sessions of the V. M. C. A. and the V. W. C. A. are held once each month for the purpose of arousing interest in missions

The week of prayer for students was observed in November, and it resulted in much good to the student-body. The special week of evangelistic services, held in February, were under the direction of Mr. S. M. Sayford, the noted college evangelist. During this week great religious interest was aroused

[&]quot;I, with my fate contented, will plod on, in the College and very interesting meetings were held. Mr. Sayford's stay at the College proved a great blessing to all, for no one could help being uplifted by the personality and power of this man of God.

[&]quot;And hope for higher raptures when life's day is done."—Spangler.

The Christian Associations also add much to the social life of the College. The receptions at the beginning of each term are under the direction of the two Associations. To these receptions all the students are invited, and they afford excellent opportunities for social development.

This year's lecture course under the management of the two Christian Associations was especially strong. The numbers were well patronized and were greatly enjoyed by all who attended them.

[&]quot;And ever on her face is seen a cheery smile."—Miss Harnish.

Y. W. C. A.

Officers and Committees 1904-1905

President-Alice L. Crowell
Vice-President-Frances Engle

Treasurer-Charlotte Fisher

Secretary-Ora Harnish

Cor. Secretary-Ethel Myers

Pianist-Catharine Gensemer

Social	Finance	Missionary	$oldsymbol{\mathcal{D}evotional}$
Ora Harnish	Charlotte Fisher	Ethel Myers	Effie Shroyer
Edith King	Neda Knaub	Laura McCormick	Laura Enders
Frances Engle		Catharine Gensemer	Nancy Kauffman

MEMBERS

Minnie Aungst	Charlotte Fisher -	Nancy Kauffman
Edith Baldwin	Catharine Gensemer	Laura McCormick
Alice Crowell	Ora Harnish	Ethel Myers
Laura Enders	Ruth Hershey	Lizzie Moyer
Frances Engle	Edith King	Mrs. N. C. Schlichter
Elizabeth Engle	Neda Knaub	Blanche Wolf

[&]quot;His heart is in his work, and the heart giveth grace into every art."-Graybill

Y. M. C. A.

Officers and Committees--1904-1905

President-A. R. Clippinger

Vice President-J. B. Hambright

Secretary-J. F. Miller

Treasurer-M. O. Snyder

Organist-E. V. Hodges

Janitor-W. K. Wolf

	Membership:			Financial:
P. E. Mathias		N. L. Linebaugh	M. O. SXYDER		F. B. PLUMMER
Andrew Bender	2	C. C. Peters	J	. B. Hambright
	EMANUEL E. SNYDE	R	7	Missionary:
G. I. Rider	Bible Study:	John Triest	P. F. ESBENSHADE J. C. STRAYER	•	J. W. KAUFMAN LEININGER
J. C. STRAYER	Е. М. СЕПВ	M. O. Billow	F. B. Plummer	Social:	T. B. BEATTY
	Devotional:			M. O. Snyder
M. M. Hoover	W. K. Wolf	B. D. Rojahn	D. D. BRANDT	Auditing:	E. E. SNYDER

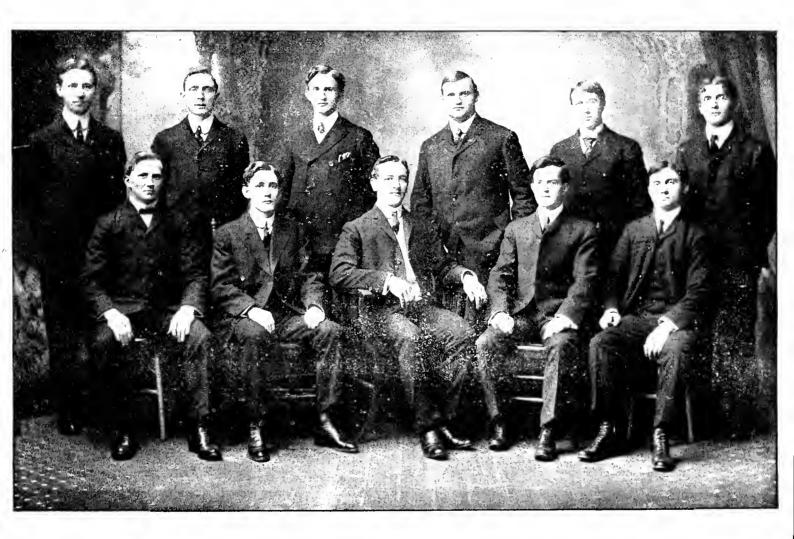

Note—The first named in each Committee is the Chairman of that Committee. The Officers of the Association together with the Chairmen of the Committees compose The Cabinet.

Delegates to Northfield:

MAX O. SNYDER EMANUEL E. SNYDER

J. CURVIN STRAYER

[&]quot;Man resolves in himself he will preach; and he preaches."—Clippinger.

Y. M. C. A.

Members

J. L. Appenzellar	E. V. Hodges	F. B. Plummer
H. W. Andrews	M. M. Hoover	G. I. Rider
T. B. Beatty	Prof. L. F. John	B. D. Rojahn
A. B. Brackbill	Prof. J. K. Jackson	Pres. H. U. Roop
M. O. Billow	J. W. Kaufmann	Prof. H. H. Shenk
S. R. Brennaman	G. R. Kreider	Prof. H. E. Spessard
A. S. Brennaman	N. L. Linebaugh	A. R. Spessard
A. Bender	J. L. Leininger	I. S. Seitz
A. R. Clippinger	E. E. Ludwig	E. E. Snyder
Prof. B. F. Daugherty	S. B. Long	C. E. Shenk
Prof. S. H. Derickson	P. E. Mathias	M. O. Snyder
P. F. Esbenshade	Prof. T. G. McFadden	S. A. Snyder
E. A. Faus	J. F. Miller	V. D. Singer
E. M. Gehr	R. E. Morgan	J. C. Strayer
R. J. Guyer	Prof. H. Oldham	J. H. Triest
J. B. Hambright	S. R. Oldham	C. Witmer

C. C. Peters

A. W. Herrman

W. K. Wolf

[&]quot;How like a picture!"—Miss Hershey.

Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. STAR COURSE

Committee

T. Bayard Beatty, Chairman A. R. Clippinger, Treasurer Alice Crowell Ora Harnish

Neda Knaub Merle M. Hoover Emanuel E. Snyder John B. Hambright

ATTRACTIONS

October 19, '04 Wallace Bruce Amsbury Company November 15, '04 Lecture—Frank Dixon

December 17, '04 Lulu Tyler Gates Company

February 1, '05 Germaine—The Magician February 23, '05 Lecture–Recital—P. M. Pearson

[&]quot;Far, far from thee, forlorn, my love, I wander here."—Beatty

THE FORUM

Volume XVIII.

No. 8

STAFF

Editor-in-Chief

Merle M. Hoover '06

Associate Editors

Ray G. Light '06 John C. Rupp '06

Department Editors

Ethel Meyers '07

Erma Shupe '08

Edward E. Knauss '07

M. O. Billow '08

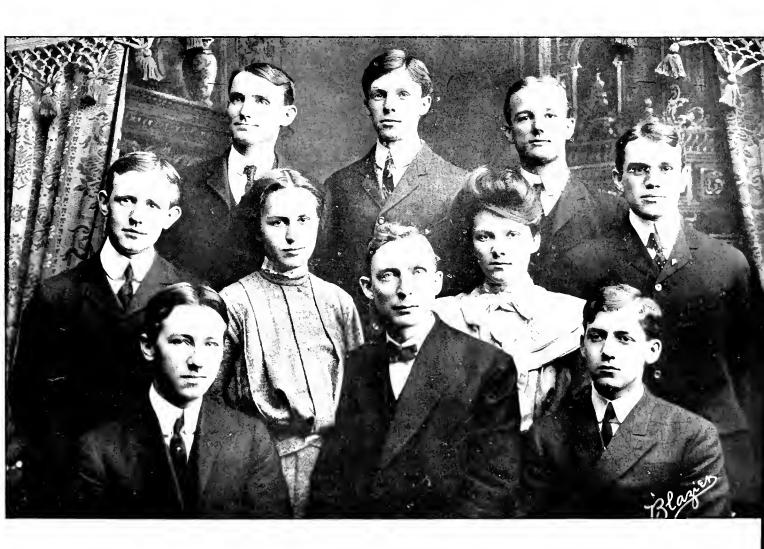

Business Managers

C. E. Shenk 'o6, Chief

M. O. Snyder '06

C. Ray Bender '07

"My exalted head shall strike the stars."—Owen

		,

LITERARY SOCIETIES

Clionian Literary Society

Colors—Gold and White

Motto-"Virtute et Fide"

Yell—Rio! Rio! Sis! Boom! Bah! Clio! Clio! Rah! Rah! Rah!

Officers

PRESIDENT Frances Engle	CRITIC Ellen Mills
VICE PRESIDENT Ora Harnish	PIANIST Ethel Ulrich
RECORDING SEC'Y - Nancy Kauffman	CHAPLAIN Ethel Myers
CORRESPONDING SEC'Y - Neda Knaub	——————————————————————————————————————
TREASURER Anna Garlock	EDITRESS Sallie Kreider

[&]quot;Genius comes in clusters and shines rarely as a single star."—"o6 Bizarre.

Members C. L. S.

Anna Garlock	Iva Maulfair	· Alice Crowell
Cathryn Gensemer	Lucile Mills	Frances Engle
Minnie Aungst	Ethel Myers	May Hershey
Elizabeth Engle	Effie Shroyer	Nancy Kauffman
Elizabeth Moyer	Neda Kuaub	Ellen Mills
Ethel Ulrich	Laura Enders	Charlotte Fisher
Emma Bomberger	Sallie Kreider	Laura McCormick
Eva Spangler	Irene Fasuacht	Ora Harnish
Edith King		Ruth Hershey

[&]quot; If to her share some female errors fall,

[&]quot;Look on her face, and you'll forget 'em all."-Ellen Mills.

Philokosmian Literary Society

Colors—Gold and Blue

Motto-" Esse Quam Videri"

Yell—Hobble gobble, razzle dazzle, L. V. C.!

Esse Quam Videri!

Hobble gobble, razzle dazzle, sis, boom, bah!

Philokosmian, rah, rah, rah!

Officers

PRESIDENT, Titus H. Kreider	CRITIC,	P. E. Mathias
VICE PRESIDENT, - M. M. Hoover	CHAPLAIN,	M. O. Billow
RECORDING SECRETARY, A. W. Herrman	PIANIST,	I. S. Leitz
CORRESPONDING SEC'Y, S. H. Waughtel	JANITOR,	S. B. Long
TREASURER, J. B. Hambright	ASSISTANT JANITOR, - A.	S. Brenneman

[&]quot;Modesty becomes a young man."—Rojahn.

Members P. L. S.

T. B. Beatty

A. R. Clippinger

R. L. Engle

T. H. Kreider

P. E. Mathias

G. D. Owen

C. C. Peters

F. B. Plummer

G. I. Rider

B. D. Rojahn

A. J. Shenk

R. B. Graybill

J. B. Hambright

M. M. Hoover

I. S. Seitz

E. E. Snyder

M. O. Snyder

J. C. Strayer

A. Bender

P. F. Esbenshade

E. M. Gehr

A. W. Herrman

W. E. Herr

M. R. Metzgar

M. F. Lehman

A. K. S. Waltz

S. H. Waughtel J. L. Appenzellar

M. O. Billow

E. A. Faus

R. S. B. Hartz

S. B. Long

V. D. Singer

A. R. Spessard

H. W. Andrews

A. B. Brackbill

S. R. Brenneman

A. S. Brenneman

C. F. James

G. R. Kreider, Jr.

D. R. Kreider

J. F. Leininger

J. A. Saylor

S. A. Snyder

W. K. Wolf

J. B Showers

[&]quot;Reproof on her lip, but a smile in her eye "—May B. Hershey.

Kalozetean Literary Society

Colors—Red and Old Gold.

Motto-" Palma Non Sine Pulvere."

Yell—Wah hoo! Wah hoo! Rah! Rah! Ree! Palma Non Sine Pulvere. Wah hoo! Wah hoo! Rah! Rah! Ree! Kalozetean, L. V. C.

Officers:

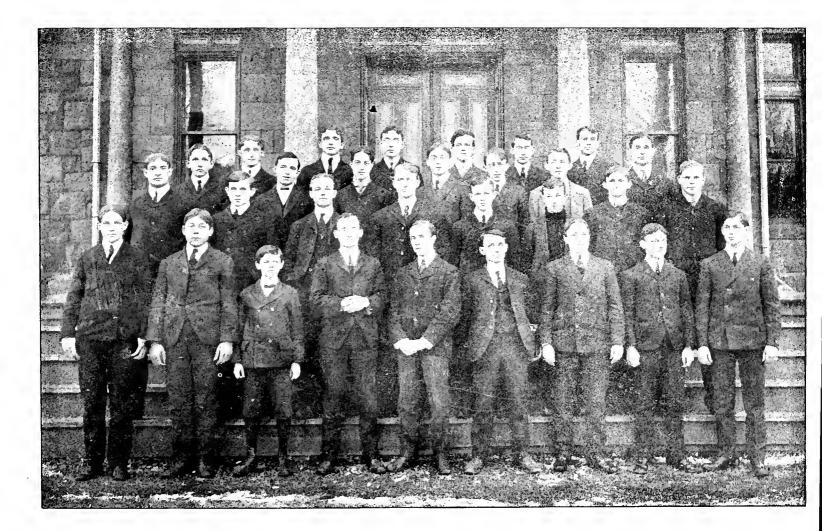

PRESIDENT, J. Warren Kaufmann	CENSOR, V. A. Arndt
VICE PRESIDENT, C. A. Fry	TREASURER, C. E. Shenk
RECORDING SECRETARY, Rufus E. Morgan	EDITOR EXAMINER, - E. E. Knauss
CORRESPOND'G SECRET'Y, I. J. McKenrick	PIANIST, E. E. Ludwig
CRITIC, Paul M. Spangler	SERGEANT-AT-ARMS, - S. R. Oldham

[&]quot;What the hammer, what the chain,

[&]quot;Knit thy strength and forged thy brain?"--- Ery.

•
€$)

Members K. L. S.

V. A. Arndt	J. W. Kaufman	S. R. Oldham
C. R. Bender	E. E. Knanss	Calvin Peiffer
O. J. Deitzler	W. S. Knauss	J. C. Rupp
W. O. Ellis	R. G. Light	P. M. Spangler
E. E. Erb	N. L. Linebaugh	C. E. Shenk
R. Earnest	Boaz Light	J. H. Sprecher
C. A. Fry	Victor Light	R. G. Stanton
A. L. Haeseler	E. E. Ludwig	Floyd Shaeffer
Herr Denver	Oliver Mease	Will Shanor
E. V. Hodges	I. J. McKenrick	F. L. Stein
L. D. Herr	L. F. Maxwell	J. H. Triest
F. J. Hunsicker	R. E. Morgan	John Vogt
	J. F. Miller

[&]quot;Ye gods, if men but knew how high ambition in me doth soar."—Kaufman.

St. Cecilia Society

Colors—Purple and White.

Flower—Roi de Dijon Rose.

Officers

PRESIDENT—Laura McCormick

V. PRESIDENT—Charlotte Fisher

SECRETARY—Emily Johnson

3

CHAPLAIN—Eli Faus

ORGANIST—Elmer Hodges

CRITIC—Prof. Oldham

Members

Mark Albert	Mark Evans	J. B. Hambright
Ano Adams	Ralph Engle	Ruth M. Hershey
H. Brackbill	Eli Faus	Mabel Herr
Emma Bomberger	Charlotte Fisher	DeWitt Herr
Margaret Berlin	Amy Gabel	Elmer Hodges
T. B. Beatty	E. M. Gehr	William Herr
Herbert Crawford	Catharine Gensemer	Emily Johnson
Florence Coppenhaver	Edith Gingrich	Isaiah Klopp

[&]quot;A little nonsense now and then is pleasant."—Mary Perffer.

St. Gecilia Society

Members (Concluded)

Louise Kreider
Edith King
Max Lehman
E. E. Ludwig
Arthur Lichty
Mabel Mock
Laura McCormick
Ivan McKenrick
P. Mathias
May Meyers
Lizzie Moyer
Lucile Mills

Iva Maulfair
Ellen Mills
G. Owen
Stanley Oldham
Celia Oldham
Constance Oldham
F. B. Plummer
B. D. Rojahu
J. B. Showers
W. W. Shanor
Catharine Smith
Arthur Spessard

Bredella Steiner
Ruth A. Schropp
Eva R. Spangler
Grace Schaffner
Lillian Suell
Elizabeth Shaud
Katie Ulrich,
Blanche Wolfe
Mary Wolf
Ruth Weaber
W. Wolf
Mabel Witman

Florence Wolf

Elsie Yeager

[&]quot;Life is not so short but that there is always time for (serenading)."—Willie Herr.

Lebanon Valley College Glee Club

Officers

President—Fredrick Berry Plummer Vice-President—Thomas Bayard Beatty

Secretary and Treasurer—Elmer Hodges Manager—Arthur Raymond Clippinger

Personnel of the Club

First Tenors

Rutherford Giles Stanton Arthur Charles Lichty Harry Edgar Spessard Benjamin Daugherty Rojalin Thomas Bayard Beatty

First Basses

Pearl Eugene Mathias Elmer Vance Hodges Frederick Berry Plummer John Balmer Showers William Wilson Shaner

> PROF. JOHN KARL JACKSON ISAIAH MEYER KLOPP

Second Tenors

Max Fisher Lehman Eber Esdras Ludwick Mark Miles Evans William Karicofe Wolf Elias Martin Gehr

Second Basses

Ralph Landis Engle Ivan Joseph McKenrick George Dickson Owen John Brenaman Hambright Arthur Ray Spessard

> Leader Accompanist

[&]quot;Be merry, if you are wise. "-Rider.

Lebanon Valley College Glee Club

Schedule of Engagements

December 5
December 8
February 11		Annville, Pa.
February 28		Lebanon, Pa.
March 18		Mechanicsburg, Pa.
March 30		Shippensburg, Pa.
March 31
April 1		Greencastle, Pa.
April 3		Chambersburg, Pa.
April 4		Hagerstown, Md.
April 5 .		Red Lion, Pa.
April 6		Harrisburg, Pa.
April 8	 -
April 13 -

[&]quot;Her voice was ever soft,

[&]quot;Gentle and low, an excellent thing in woman."—Alice Crowell.

Athletic Association

Officers

President, Max O. Snyder Vice President, Max F. Lehman

TREASURER, Cyrus E. Shenk

SECRETARY, Paul M. Spangler

FOOT BALL MANAGER, Paul M, Spangler

ASSISTANT FOOT BALL MANAGER, Park F. Esbenshade

BASE BALL MANAGER, Titus H. Kreider

ASSISTANT BASE BALL MANAGER, J. B. Hambright

BASKET BALL MANAGER, A. J. Jones

ASSISTANT BASKET BALL MANAGER, Ellen Mills

Executive Committee

Max O. Snyder

Cyrus E, Shenk

Paul M. Spangler

A. J. Jones

T. H. Kreider

Prof. B. F. Daugherty

Prof. H. H. Shenk

[&]quot;Certain winds will make men's tempers bad."—T. H. Kreider.

Foot Ball

THE foot-ball team this year at the beginning of the season faced one of the strongest schedules in the history of this sport at Lebanon Valley. When the end of the season arrrived it was found that the team had been equal to the schedule and that we have just had the most successful foot ball season in our history.

Under the coaching of John Gillis a team was developed which was a credit to the College it represented both at home and abroad. Everywhere a strong, clean game was played and from all sides only words of praise were heard concerning the playing and general conduct of our team.

We think that the manager, captain and coach of this year's team deserve special commendation for the success of this years season. May Lebanon Valley see many more seasons as gratifying as the one just past.

THOS. E. BEDDOW, CAPTAIN

Foot Ball

Varsity Team Line-Up

		Varon	y icam.	Zine Op
O	О	O	0	O	0	O
Barnhart	Beddow	S. Snyder	Jones	M. O. Snyder	r Gillis	Maxwell
		Ý	0	J
			Arndt
	O		7 HITTELE		0
	Stante	n n		C	iuyer
	Stanti	211	0		rayer
		Г	McKenrick,	Frb
			·
	Substitut	es—Holler, l	Mathias, Ap	ppenzellar, Lich	nty, Herr.
		20	. 17	T / V4
		Reserv	es Team	Line-Up
O	О	O	O	O	O	O
Ludwig	Kreider	Ditzler	E. Snyde	r Saylor	R. Snyder	Knauss
			О
			Oldham
	0				0
	Heri			Br	rewer
			0	2.
			Herrman
	C 1				J
	Sun	stitutes—Ge	enr, Gonn,	Showers, Krei-	der.
			—102—

Varsity Foot Ball

Schedule of Games--with Scores

			ebanon Valley	Oppo- sition
September 15, Lebanon Valley vs. Indians, at Carlisle,	_	-	0	28
September 24, Lebanon Valley vs. Bucknell, at Lewisburg,		-	O	3 0
October 1, Lebanon Valley vs. Susquehanna, at Annville, -	-	-	6	0
October 8, Lebanon Valley vs. Steelton Y. M. C. A., at Steelton,		-	O	39
October 15, Lebanon Valley vs. Williamson, at Annville, -	-	-	10	0
October 22, Lebanon Valley vs. Jefferson Medical, at Annville, -		-	19	6
October 29, Lebanon Valley vs. Gettysburg, at Gettysburg, -	-	-	0	3 0
November 5. Lebanon Valley vs. Dickinson, at Carlisle,		-	0	44

[&]quot;Who would think that one so small could rise to such heights!"—Rupp.

Basket Ball

A LTHOUGH the College fire which destroyed the basket ball cage sadly interferred with the schedule as planned for the basket ball team this year, yet the season was very successful. The five in its trips away from home played good games with strong teams.

At home although handicapped by the small cage in the Town Hall yet the team managed to give us several well played games. In the home cage the team defeated the strong Bucknell, Gettysburg and Susquehanna fives, three of the strongest basket ball teams in the State. We can well congratulate ourselves on the excellent work of our basket ball team this year.

[&]quot;Yes I could do it to-day, but haven't much on hand for to-morrow."—However.

Basket Ball

Schedule of Games Played-with Scores

			-	.ebanon Valley	Oppo- sition
December 1	15, Lebanon Valley vs. Company H at Annville, -	_		27	18
January _	25. Lebanon Valley vs. Chambersburg at Lebanon,	-		8	19
February	3. Lebanon Valley vs. Gettysburg at Gettysburg, -	-		10	57
February	4. Lebanon Valley vs. Dickinson at Carlisle, -	_	-	13	28
February	9, Lebanon Valley vs. Pine Grove at Pine Grove, -	-	Audio	19	8
February 1	11, Lebanon Valley vs. Schuylkill Seminary at Reading,		~	22	13
February 1	16, Lebanon Valley vs. Bucknell at Lewisburg, —	-	-	14	28
February 1	17. Lebanon Valley vs. Bloomsburg at Bloomsburg	-		18	22
February 1	19, Lebanon Valley vs. Susquehanna at Selins Grove,	-		24	13
February 2	22, Lebanon Valley vs. Middletown at Middletown,	٠.	4.4	40	12
February 2	24, Lebanon Valley vs. Gettysburg at Annville, -	-	_	30	17

[&]quot;When he wills, he wills, depend on't,

[&]quot;And when he won't, he won't, and that's an end on't."—R. Engle.

Ladies' Basket Ball

The fire completly spoiled the plans of the manager of the ladies basket ball team this year and no games were played. We had hoped that last year's excellent record would at least be duplicated but being left without a cage no games could be played. The completion of the new Brightbill Gymnasinm will doubtless mean better things in the way of basket ball among the ladies at Lebanon Valley.

Base Ball

Schedule of Games--with Scores and Team

						Lebane Valle	- F F
April 8, Lebanon Valley vs. Gettysburg, at Gettysburg -		-		_		- 8	1
April 15, Lebanon Valley vs. Indians, at Carlisle,	-		_		-	3	1
April 16, Lebanon Valley vs. Mercersburg, at Mercersburg,		-		-	-	- 5	12
April 23, Lebanon Valley vs. Indians, at Annville, -	-		-		_	3	2
Apail 30, Lebanon Valley vs. Delaware, at Annville, -		-		-	-	- 4	2
May 8, Lebanon Valley vs. Gettysburg, at Annville, -	_		_		-	4	5

Personnel of Club

Miller, C.

Oldham, ss.

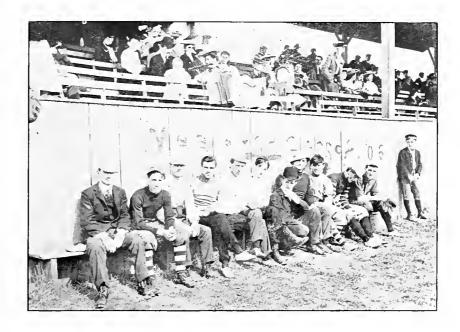

Sheesley, 2B.

Captain, A. J. Shenk Hafer, P. Shenk, 3B. Hendricks, L.F.

Barnhart, 1B. Kohr, C.F. Arndt, R.F.

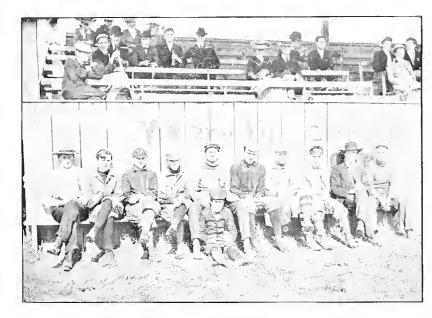

[&]quot;Solitude sometimes is best society."—Peters.

Class Athletics

1906 Base Ball Team

C. E. Shenk Manager J. H. Hambright, Captain

Preps Base Ball Team

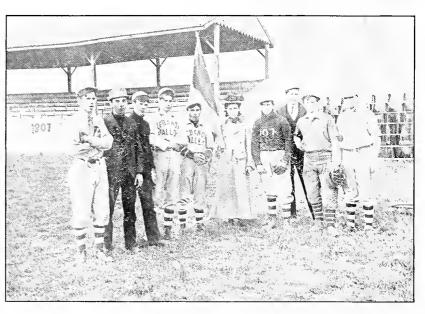

A. B. Moyer. Manager
S. R. Oldham, Captain

1907 Base Ball Team

Miss Ethel Myers, Manager Ray Sheesley, Captain

BANQUETS AND PROGRAMS

Junior-Senior Banquet

Colonial Hotel, Lebanon, Pa.

MENU

Blue Points on Half Shell Bouillon

Olives

Celery

Roast Turkey

Lebanon County Filling

Sweet Potatoes

Cranberry Sauce

String Beans

Corn

Colonial Punch

Lettuce

Wafers

Cheese

Bisque Ice Cream

Fancy Cake

Tea

Cocoa

Coffee Mixed Nuts Wednesday, January 25, 1905, At 8 o'clock, P. M.

TOASTS

Toastmaster, J. Warren Kaufmann,'06

President's Toast, - - Ray G. Light, '06

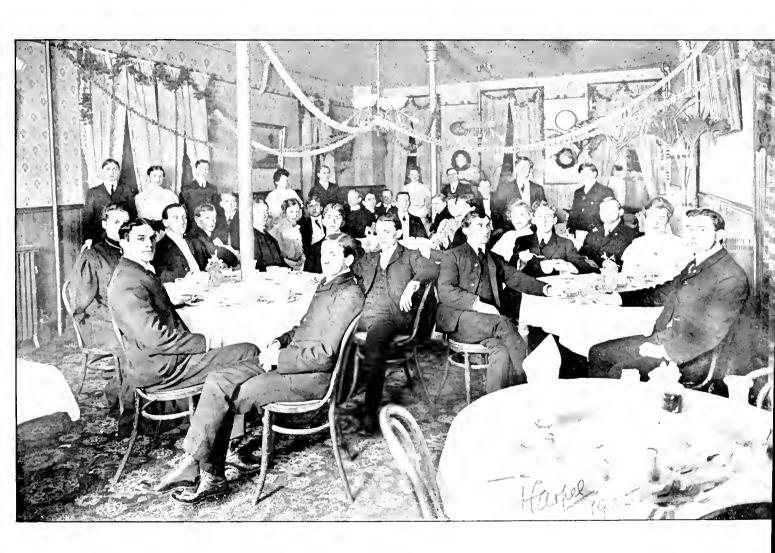

Class of 1906, - - Ralph L. Engle, '05

"Old Administration Building,"

J. B. Hambright, '06

"Town Life," - - C. C. Peters, '05

1906's Sophomore Banquet

Commonwealth Hotel

Harrisburg, Pa.

January 22, 1904, 8 o'clock, P. M.

MENU

Blue Point Oysters

Consomme, in Cups

Quail on Toast

Sliced Tomatoes

Fillet of Beef, with Mushrooms

Peas

Diamond Back Terrapin

Chicken Salad

Ice Cream

Assorted Cakes

Coffee

Cheese

Crackers

TOASTS

Toastmaster, - - Merle M. Hoover

The Class, - - - J. Curvin Strayer
Our Boys, - - - Ruth M. Hershey

Our Girls, - - Cyrus E. Shenk

"Looking Backward," - Emanuel E. Snyder

'06 Sophomore Banquet Poem

80808080 80808080

With the fashion set by classes before us,
We agreed, in a long and earnest chorns,
To hold a banquet sure.
And planned so well to hide the scheme.
That none would suspect it was our theme,
So no members could allure.

The thing was settled—date, hotel and all,
During the early meetings in the fall;
And by next term it was quite "pat,"
Not a night, but a day we decided upon
To take off and as it came so slyly on,
We all knew just where we were at.

With the dawn of the day the wind howled and roared, And in school vernacular, "it simply poured" Upon Naughty-Six "all bridled to start." Not a soul in the building knew that this was the day, Upon which the Sophs would hie away,

To hold their banquet each to his part.

Some started at five ou to Lebanon bent;
Suit cases and satchels the day before sent Euroute to Harrisburg, by ways that were various,
Trolleys and coaches, steam cars as well,
On all means of locomotion, we had put the spell;
And at last we were there, not the least precarious.

The class all there, we proceeded straight To give our yell before we ate.
"Ricka, Racka, Ricka, Racka Rix"
Then each in turn his part did play,
Which made it one memorial day
For all of Naughty Six.

Our toasts were all on L. V. C.
Bright and spicy as they could be
With a word for, "The Class" thrown in "Our Boy's" "Our Girls," "Looking Backward" were they
The truth of us all was told in that way
Mixed with blue point and terrapin.

[&]quot;So sweet, and calm and holy was his soul,

[&]quot;That it scarce seemed that he to earth belonged."-M. O. Snyder.

Baccalaureate Services

Sunday, June 12, 1904

Morning Service.

Evening Service.

Organ Prelude Organ Prelude
Doxology Invocation

Invocation Pastor Zuck Responsive Reading
Responsive Reading Hymn—A Mighty Fortress

Hymn No. 1—Holy, Holy, Holy! Scripture Lesson

Scripture Lesson Hymn--Onward Christian Soldiers

Prayer Bishop Kephart Prayer Rev. W. F. DeLong

Quartette—O Holy Father Moderati Offering

Special Offering for Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Anthem-Saviour Again Slewellen

Northfield Delegate Fund Address—Hon. J. C. Havemeyer

Anthem—I Am He That Liveth King Quartette—Softly Now the Light of Day

Sermon—Theme: Permanent Fruit From Life Doxology
Pres. Roop
Benediction

Hymn-Our Lord is God Forever

Benediction

[&]quot;Then let him pass, a blessing on his head."—Light.

Music Commencement

Monday, June 13, 1904

Mendelssohn's Sacred Cantata "The Hymn of Praise"

THE SYMPHONY

Clara Eisenbaugh (Piano '04)

Sue J. Reiter (Piano '04)

Margaret Gray (Piano '04)

Jennie Vallerchamp (Piano '04)

Prof. H. Oldham Organ

THE CANTATA

Soloists

Mamie Keller (Voice '04)

Jennie Leslie (Voice '04)

Accompanists

Ruth Leslie (Organ '04)

Lillie Burkey (Organ '04)

Prof. Chas. Oldham Piano

Chorus

Prof. H. Oldham Conductor and Organist

THE HYMN OF PRAISE

- ı Chorus
- 2 Solo (soprano) and Semi Chorus
- 3 Recitative (soprano) Air—Soprano
- 4 Chorus
- 5 Duet (soprano-alto) and chorus
- 6 Air (alto)—Recitative (alto)
- 7 Solo (soprano) and Chorus
- 8 Choral
- 9 Chorus

[&]quot;A rosebud set with little wilful thorns."—Frances Engle.

Class Day Exercises

Tuesday, June 14, 1904

Piano Solo	Mary N. Light		Review of 1905 Bizarre	M. Edna Engle
President's Address	A. C. Crone		Class Record	W. M. Grumbein
Reminiscences	W. R. Kohr		Prophecy	W. E. Riedel
Extracts From Our Diary	Nelle C. Reed	\downarrow	Quartette
Class Oration	C. H. Fisher		Tears, Idle Tears	J. I. Shaud
Quartette			Brotherly Counsel	J. H. Graybill
Mary N. Light	David D. Brandt			(Mahel M. Spayd
Margaretta C. Miller	Frank Heinaman		Presentations	{ Mabel M. Spayd { W. R. Appenzellar
	Alfred Keister Mills		Class Song

[&]quot;Such fine reserve and noble reticence."-Hodges.

Commencement Exercises Wednesday, June 15, 1904

Orchestra—William Tell

Rossini

Invocation

Orchestra-Concert-Polka—The Charmer

(Cornet Solo)

Boos

Gruenwald

De Koven

Commencement Oration

Rev. Kerr Boyce Tupper, D.D., L.L.D.

Orchestra—Suite Antony and Cleopatra

(a) Dance of the Nubians

(b) Antony's Victory

Presentation of Diplomas and Conferring of Degrees

Orchestra-Selection-Red Feather

"They said he was a student deep—And this is true, I think."—Seitz.

Junior Rhetoricals

First Division March 23

Second Division March 25

	PIANOKinawiak, Wieniawiki Laura McCormick
	1NVOCATION, Prof. L. F. John
	ORATION—The Spirit of Modern Strikes, J. Warren Kanfmann
1	ORATION-Conrad Weiser, Ruth M. Hershey
	VOCAL—"The Seasons," C. B. Hawley Grace Schaffner
	ORATIONCelt or Teuton? John C. Rupp
	ORATIONThe Strength of Man, - Irwin S. Seitz
	ORATION-The Influence of Fire, - Paul M. Spangler
	VOCAL—"The Mountebank's Song," - M. Watson Arthur Spessard
	ORATION—The Elective System—Advantages and Disadvantages, Ray G. Light
	ORATION—The National Banking System of the United States, Max O. Snyder
	PIANO" Dans La Nacelle, Raff Blanche Wolfe

League of Death

RESORT—Cemetery TIME—Midnight MOTTO—"Do other PURPOSE—To make men out of boys PASS WORD—In Memoriam

MOTTO—"Do others as we were done by"

Officers

PRESIDENT—P. F. Esbenshade SECRETARY—Ray Bender HIGH COCK-A-LOREM—M. O. Snyder

BIG DEVIL—A. Bender
LITTLE DEVIL—E. E. Snyder
O. Snyder CHIEF PADDLER—M. M. Hoover
GUARD—E. M. Gehr

VICTIMS—Spessard, Brenneman NEXT—Singer, Guyer, Prof. Spessard

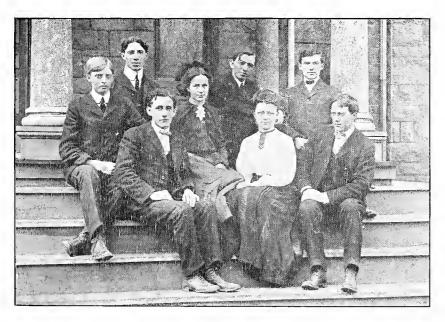

[&]quot;Silence has many advantages."—Nancy Kauffman.

Lancaster County Club

PRESIDENT—John B. Hambright
VICE PRESIDENT—Park F. Esbenshade
SECRETARY—Miss Myers
TREASURER—A. B. Brackbill

CHAPLAIN—Miss Yeager
ARCHIVE KEEPER—H. W. Andrews
PIANIST—E. A. Faus
CHORISTER—Elias M. Gehr

Flower—Red Rose

Song—Here's to Lancaster County

Members

John B. Hambright Park F. Esbenshade Ethel Myers Abraham Brackbill Elsie Yeager Eli Faus Elias Gehr Harry Andrews

Dauphin County Club

Flower—Dandelion
Song—Mr. Dooley
Members

A. J. Jones George Hoffer Grace Nissley P. E. Mathias May B. Hershey LeRoy Holler Clyde Erb C. E. Shenk Grace Shaffner C. Ray Bender Kathryn Ulrich E. E. Erb Ruth M. Hershey Dorothy Goss Frances Engle Annie H. Shenk Morris Metzgar Laura Enders Richard Earnest Elizabeth Engle . Frank Witmer

PRESIDENT—P. E. Mathias
VICE PRESIDENT—E. E. Erb
SECRETARY—Grace Shaffner
TREASURER—Frances Engle

W. P. S. I. K.

PRESIDENT—J. B. Showers
BOARD OF HEALTH—Laura McCormick
CHAPERON—Margaret Berlin

OVERSEER OF THE POOR—I. J. McKenrick CHIEF DETECTIVE BUREAU—Edith King MATRON—Oscar J. Dietzler

Flower—Rhododendron

Song—Over the Hills

Members

J. B. Showers
Margaret Berlin
I. J. McKenrick
Laura McCormick
Edith King
O. J. Dietzler

York County Club

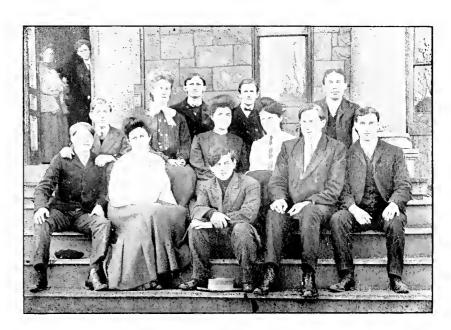

PRESIDENT—Emanuel Snyder
VICE PRESIDENT—Curvin Strayer

SECRETARY—Alice Crowell
TREASURER—Mary Wolf

Flower—Mock Orange
Song—Die Lorelei

Members

Mary Wolf
Florence Wolf
Charlotte Fisher
Alice Crowell
Nancy Kauffman
Norman Linebaugh
Emanuel Snyder
E. E. Knauss
Amos Herrman
Samuel Waughtel
Andrew Bender
Curvin Strayer
Benjamin Rojahn

Dayton Ohio Club

RABBI—J. Fred. Miller KEEPER OF THE SCROLL—Erma Shupe PROPHET—Vivian Powers
INTERPRETER OF TALMUD—V.D. Singer

Flower-Jack in the Pulpit

Song—The Song of the Cash Register

Members

J. Fred. Miller Erma Shupe Vivian Powers V. D. Singer

Historical-Political Club

Officers

PRESIDENT—George D. Owen

SECRETARY—Alice Crowell

Emblem—Coon

Song—Ye Jolly Old Whigs of Ohio

Members

T. B. Beatty Ora Harnish Alice Crowell W. E. Herr Frances Engle Edward Knauss E. E. Erb A. W. Herrman Nancy Kauffman S. H. Waughtel T. H. Kreider A. K. Waltz G. I. Rider R. J. Guyer G. D. Owen Laura Enders Anna Garlock J. W. Kauffmann W. K. Wolf M. O. Snyder A. B. Brackbill E. V. Hodges C. E. Shenk I. J. McKenrick

Prof. H. H. Shenk

[&]quot;She wears the roses of youth upon her."—Laura Enders.

Biological Field Club

Officers

PRESIDENT—R. L. Engle

VICE PRESIDENT—Ora Harnish

SECRETARY—Ethel Myers

TREASURER—Charles A. Fry

Flower—Dogwood
Song—"The Cat Came Back"

Members

George Hoffer

C. A. Fry

A. B. Brackbill

Alice Crowell

W. K. Wolf

Margaret Berlin

Ora Harnish

Ethel Myers F. B. Plummer

Frances Engle

Ralph Engle Effie Shroyer

P. E. Mathias

J. W. Kaufmann Charlotte Fisher

Helen Bressler

T. B. Beatty

Laura Enders

Prof. S. H. Derickson

[&]quot;Ay, sir, to be honest, as this world goes, is to be one man picked out of a thousand."—Morgan.

The Merchant of Venice

Cast of Characters

The Duke of Venice, - George Owen
The Prince of Morocco, Arthur Spessard
Antonio, - - Merle M. Hoover
Bassanio, - J. Warren Kaufmann
Salanio, - - Edward E. Knauss
Salerino, - - Max F. Lehman
Gratiano, : - - Ralph Engle
Salerio, - - J. Frederick Miller
Lorenzo, - - F. Berry Plummer

SHYLOCK, - - T. Bayard Beatty
Tubal, - - Pearl E. Mathias
Launcelot Gobbo, - Gordon I. Rider
Old Gobbo, - - Andrew Bender
Leonardo, - John B. Hambright
Balthasar, - - William E. Herr
Stephano, - - Park F. Esbenshade
PORUIA, - Miss Charlotte M. Fisher
Nerissa, - Miss Neda D. Knaub
Jessica. - Miss Alice C. Crowell

[&]quot;With or without offense, to friend or foes,

[&]quot;We shall sketch student life exactly as it goes."—'o6 Bizarre.

Tennis Clubs

The Quittapahilla Club

P. F. Esbenshade C. F. James

J. B. Hambright S. A. Snyder

R. B. Graybill J. C. Strayer

J. W. Kauffmann E. E. Snyder

W. E. Herr

The Bison Club

S. R. Oldham E. V. Hodges

C. H. Oldham L. D. Herr

F. B. Plummer M. F. Lehman

Prof. N. C. Schlichter

[&]quot;As happy as the day is long."—Waughtel

—134—

The College Fire

C HRISTMAS EVE of 1904 will go down in the history of Lebanon Valley College as an occasion of great calamity when the administration building with all its contents was destroyed by fire of unknown origin.

Just as the citizens of Annville were preparing for Christmas Day, and the students were enjoying Christmas eve at their homes with many of their belongings in their College rooms, the cry of fire began to spread at a rapid rate. When a dozen persons were on the scene the flames were already bursting through windows on the third floor. The fire spread rapidly and soon reached the attic and the space underneath the cupola.

Then, when the anxious citizens of Annville, and special carloads of people from Lebanon began to gather it was seen that the flames grew fiercer and fiercer and it was impossible for any human agency to control them. The Rescue Fire Company, of Annville, was at the scene immediately but was unable to cope with so large a monster. The vast crowd of people could do no more than stand along College Avenue and see the Classic hall meet its fatal doom.

In the meantime, President Roop, assisted by those who were first on the scene saved many valuable books and papers in the office. The chairs and books and some of the apparatus of the laboratories were saved through the management of Prof. McFadden assisted by willing workers. The rooms of the students could not be reached, as the flames spread with remarkable rapidity. As a result, all their personal affects consisting of books, clothing, trunks etc., were destroyed.

The heavy volumes of smoke preceded the bursting of flames through the roof and windows. Gradually the lower part of the cupola was wasting away, and soon the one thousand pound bell went down with a crash. The large and heavy timbers were burned like straws. In this way the flames continued to spread for two hours beginning at seven o'clock and by nine o'clock every particle of wood was consumed, and nothing except the ruined walls, illustrations of which are in the beginning of this book, remained.

[&]quot;Only in name."—Strayer.

The students had just left their rooms a day or two before and had gone to their homes for Christmas vacation. Little did they dream that before Christmas morning their dear old classic hall would have such an awful devastation. The happy day of the year was turned into sadness for those who lost their belongings.

[&]quot;A man he seems of cheerful yesterdays

[&]quot;And confident to-morrows."—Singer.

We do not have room to mention all the minor incidents, and names of persons who helped to save the property, but the citizens of Annville responded hastily to the call and many thanks are extended by the faculty to all of them

As to the origin of the fire there is a diversity of opinion. Many persons claim that it was of incendiary origin, because the flames were discovered in a part of the building where the chances for fire to start were impossible. A few are of the opinion that it started in one of the students rooms on the third floor, communicating with the hallway, and from thence spreading rapidly to other parts of the building. The conflagration, it is certain, did not start through the heating plant, electric light wire, or chemical laboratory.

Much sympathy has been evinced, and the sons and daughters of the College, who saw the work and savings of nearly forty-seven years disappear in a few hours will not despair, for a newer and grander institution is now rising from the ruins, and brighter days are dawning for Lebanon Valley College.

"There's a man of pluck."—Guyer.

The Greater Lebanon Valley

THE greatest misfortunes in history have often proved to be the greatest blessings afterward. So to us the fire which seemed to be such a great disaster, and such a setback in our progress seems to have been in reality a blessing in disguise, when the news went abroad that the Administration building had been burned with its contents it seemed to all that the loss would be irreparable and it seemed as if our struggling college had received a blow from which it could not possibly recover.

The ruins were still warm when President Roop called a meeting of the trustees to consider plans for rebuilding, and when they assembled it was found that the fate of our college was not as hopeless as it would seem. It was decided to make an appeal for aid to all friends of the college and to secure funds for the immediate rebuilding of the college upon plans greater and better than had ever been thought of before the fire. The gift of Andrew Carnegie of $50,000 came as a Godsend to the college authorities and efforts to secure the like sum upon which condition the sum was given, began at once. Among the conferences which our college represents this required sum will be raised.

Including the insurance, the funds at hand for rebuilding, amount to nearly $150,000 which will enable the college authorities to erect college buildings which will be complete in every detail.

The tract of land on the west side of the college campus has been purchased and in addition to the land now in possession of the college will give enough space for the erection of all the proposed buildings and will give us a beautiful college campus.

[&]quot;You know I say just what I think,

[&]quot;And nothing more or less."—Faus.

To replace the burned building, four new buildings will be built; an Administration Building, Men's Dormitory, Science Hall and separate heating plant. All the new buildings will be large, commodious and complete in every way, and will be built upon plans of the best college architecture of the present day. Together with the new Carnegie Library, Ladies' Hall, Brightbill Gymnasium, Engle Conservatory of Music, and the old Ladies' Hall Lebanon Valley College will have nine buildings which will compare favorably with any set of college buildings in the state and we will have one of the most modern and best equipped groupe of buildings of any college of our rank.

The new Administration building will be built upon the site of the burned building, the Boys' Dormitory and Science Hall upon the newly purchased land west of the campus and the new heating plant in the rear. They will be so arranged that the group of buildings will present an imposing and pleasing appearance and the grounds about the buildings are to be laid out so as to make our new campus as beautiful as possible.

Equipped with the new buildings, Lebanon Valley College promises to take on a new lease of life. The success which has come to it in the past, and the excellent reputation which it has always had will surely be greatly increased in the future. The present difficulty is being used as a round of the ladder by which the college which we love so well is mounting to higher and better things. The sorrow which we felt when we gazed upon the charred ruins of our college building is being turned to joy as we look forward and see the realization of our fondest dreams in a Greater Lebanon Valley.

[&]quot;The time is never lost that is devoted to study."—C. E. Shenk.

WHEN THE HEIMWEH HAS GOT YOU IN IT'S GRIP

When the Heimweh has got you in its grip, Then I tell you, you feel bad, And your heart is sore and sad, And you wonder what in all the earth you're ever living for. And you feel that dreadful blue, That you don't know what to do And there's not a thing beneath the sun that's not an awful bore, When the Heimweh has got you in its grip.

When the Heimweh has got you in its grip. Then you sulk and hold your head. And you wish that you were dead,

For the world about you wears Such a cold unfeeling stare That you feel that all the sympathy that ever was has gone, When the Heimweli has got you in its grip.

When the Heimweh has got you in its grip, Then you think of home and mother And of this and that and other, Sentimental things that almost make you cry, And you wonder what they'll say, If some dark and dreary day Your sorrow stricken body would be carried home to die. When the Heimweh has got you in its grip.

Yes the Heimweh it gets you in its grip. And 1'd rather have the mumps, Or a bad toothache that jumps, And you're sure that not a person in the world would care, not one. Or any other sickness to which my flesh is heir.

> For the homesickness is worse Than any other curse

And I know there's nothing else in all the world so hard to bear. As when the Heimweh has got you in its grip.

My Dream Lady--A Reverie

I CANNOT remember the time when I did not have my dream lady. The Greeks believed that each person at birth received a guardian spirit which watched over him and guided him throughout his entire life. Well, I suppose that so far I am a heathen Greek, because my dream lady has been a part of my daily thought and life as far back as my memory carries me.

Ah, what a part she was of my childhood dreams. She was the princess of my childish imagination fed by the lore of the fairy book. How I stormed imaginary castles; what terrible contests with fiery dragons which had imprisoned her; and with what pride with my hand upon my terrible sword I knelt before her and received her grateful thanks. Those were happy days we spent together my princess and I in the dreamy land of the fairies.

Boyhood passed into youth and my schooldays. The fairy book gave way to adventurous stories of real life. My school life with its history and geography opened up to me the sternness and reality of life. I began to get visions of a world which was not the fanciful land of the fairies and I began to understand that some day I would be expected to play my part in it. But that time was so far distant, and so I dreamed; dreamed of the time of manhood in its power. If I would have known then what I know now I would not have done so. I would have left manhood as a state in which I had no interest and I would have been supremely happy just in being a boy. I would have looked out into the world through the purity of a child's eyes, with the purity and innocence of a child's thoughts. Ah! how often since have I wished that I could look out once again on the wicked old world through the eyes of my childhood when the world was only pure and beautiful?

I wonder whether we older people justly appreciate the beauty and the purity of the heart of a boy or whether we value truly the greatness of a boy's thoughts. Back in my boyhood days, in the time when I was forming so much of my after life. I gave my most precious treasure, my pure boy heart to my dream lady,—gave to her the most sacred thoughts of my pure mind. Ah the woman who gets a man's heart receives a heart that must be full of its contact with the hard, cruel world, but she, my dream lady, received a heart that was pure as only a boy's heart can be.

And she deserved it. She was no longer the princess to be worshipped, she was now the one who ever stood by me, always pointing upward, urging me onward to higher and better things. For she represented all the goodness and beauty that my boyish heart knew, and it knew nothing else. So she became the goal of my every ambition, the essence of my every thought, and I determined to be only what would be worthy of her praise, do only those things which she would have me do and then I knew that my own life would be only good and beautiful.

Then some day I beleived this being of spirit would be found incarnated in a woman of flesh and blood. She would be the woman I would love she would be that one woman which should come into every man's life and make him happy.

And have I ever found her? No never. I have now come to that point in life when the most of my boyish dreams; most of my boyish ambitions, have been realized. But I have never met my dream lady in the flesh. Am I disappointed? Well no for there is a secret in it all. You see my dream lady is of the spirit world while I am of the earth earthy. She is free in the upper world, can live, can love as the spirit lives and loves but I am bound to earthly things and must love and be loved as the earthly ones love. And so I must wait, for I know that I shall never find her in this world, will never find the one who has guided me, who has made me what I am. It's sad no doubt but such is the way of it all.

But when my spirit has cast off its earthly bonds, when I am no longer of the earth but of the spirit world. Then, then I will love and be loved as the spirit loves and then only then will I have found my dream lady.

JIMMY, PROF. JIMMY

With no disrespect and with only affection.

A little man sits at his desk all day, And greets all who pass in his own quiet way, He's Jimmy, Prof. Jimmy.

He's not very big he's not very tall, He must have been slighted in part, But God wasn't stingy, or mean, not at all When He gave Prof. Jimmy a heart. Jimmy, Prof. Jimmy.

His classes go in, and his classes go out, In a quiet sort of way, For Jimmy knows what he's talking about And we go elsewhere to play. Jimmy, Prof. Jimmy. But Jimmy he teaches us more than Greek,
For he's had a Teacher, above.
And Jimmy he teaches a lesson sweet,
For we all get a share of his love.
Jimmy, Prof. Jimmy.

Ah, yes, he will know all the hearts he has won, When the sun of his life has gone down. And won't God be pleased with the good he has done When he gives Prof. Jimmy his crown?

Jimmy, Prof. Jimmy.

"OF ALL SAD WORDS"

I bowed my head and softly wept, How could she speak so cruelly? But in her cold grey eyes there slept No trace of kindly sympathy. 1 wept and trembling bowed my head, How could my heart this pain endure? She was my English Prof. and said. "You've thunked your exam in Literature."

"A face with gladness overspread,"-B, Long

A VISIT FROM CUPID

Said cupid one day,
In a sad plaintive way,
"Dear me, I am feeling quite blue;
My old fashioned darts,
Through new fashioned hearts,
Don't go, I must find something new."

His thoughts they kept turning.

For modern learning,

And this was his happy reflection

'l'll go to L. V.,

The Co-eds to see,''

And get some new theme for affection.

I'll go to the Hall, To the I
Which Engle they call; There so
'Twill be an excellent place. I'll fi
The chapel I ween. Pretend
Has looks far too keen. No wate
From professors of learning and grace So I'l

To the library I'll go,
There surely I know
I'll find lads and lasses galore.
Pretending to read (?)
No watching they need
So I'll go to the second floor.''

He ascended the stair,
And strains greeted him there;
Of piano, soprano and bass.
"I'll keep my head steady,
And get my darts ready,
For here I can work up a case."

He peeped in at the door.

And as he thought before,
Found soprano and bass alone.
But to art they were not bent,
Soprano to bass her hand had lent
And he held it within his own.

The new fashioned dart
Played well its part,
He had "sighted" the case this day.
"The dart now I'll send,
And this is the end,
For here I've found my prey."

Pictures From Mt. Gretna

T. GRETNA, unlike a good many persons and other places, improves on acquaintance. You may and you may not fall in love with it at first sight, according to your temperament, and the season of the year. But the oftener you visit it the more certainly will its charms unconsciously pull your heart strings in its direction, and make you a devotee to the worship of nature there.

For him who has become thoroughly imbued with its spirit, there is something charming and romantic about the very name Mt. Gretna. It is a place to dream about in the day-time; and if memories of delightful associations can be dropped into the nectar inducing these dreams, they will be pleasant indeed. The farmer's boy in the valley following his plow looks toward the mountains and longs for the time, when he can pass up those green slopes. For him and for many others it means much that is pleasant and beautiful in life, lifting out of the prosaic life of the lower country into a region in which all the poetry he has ever read and music he has ever heard takes on a newer and fuller meaning.

To many Mt. Gretna means no more than a picnic ground, fitted with swings, carioles and the usual attractions of such a place. Others make of it a fashionable summer resort, following a daily rontine of dress and social functions such as might be carried on in such a place as Atlantic City. These it were best to "pass by on the other side." The absurdity of dress, outside of neatness and cleanliness, in a place where natural simplicity should be the prevailing key note. will appeal to every sensible person.

But by far the greater number of those who visit this beautiful spot in the mountains, do so from a desire to get away from the cares of business for a season, to free themselves from the restraints and the oftentimes frivolities of society, and recuperate their strength in the bracing mountain air, in the purest of water, by long rambles through the woods, and withal by some intellectual culture. These are our brothers. Let us take them by the hand and with them make a pilgrimage to the shrine at which we commonly worship.

[&]quot;Nothing can beat man out of ultimate success but himself."—Billow

The rail road station at Mt. Gretna strives to keep in harmony with the spirit of the place and is essentially rustic in its construction. In the summer during the picnic season and the sessions of the Pennsylvania Chautauqua and East Pennsylvania camp meeting it is a scene of bustling activity. The Cornwall and Lebanon Railroad is a belt line between the Pennsylvania System on the south and the Philadelphia & Reading on the north, and the engines on the road are noted for the musical intonations of their whistles.

The picnic ground which lies directly outside of the station gates can be briefly passed over, as a catalogue of its attraction would be uninteresting. It is not particularly attractive, though every summer happy childhood will frolic there, and the bashful swain will lead the blushing country maiden to the ice-cream counter, or a seat on the merry-go-round. A familiar sight on entering the grounds are the open cars of the narrow gauge railroad, the dripping water tank, and the engine-house. The road has a two foot gauge and extends down the side of the park, skirting Lake Conewago on two sides, and goes to Rifle Range, a place famous for the target practice of the National Guards. Years ago the narrow gauge also wound in a devious path up the mountains, to the highest point on the ridge. Here a high wooden tower had been built, which for some reason or other received the name of "Governor Dick". A fine view of Lebanon, Lancaster, and Dauphin counties could be had from this point. But a heavy storm laid the "Governor" low, and it has since been a source of regret that he has never been restored. After this the road fell into disuse and it is now overgrown in many places with underbrush. Many persons are still attracted to "Governor Dick" however partly on account of the fine view that may still be had at many places on the ascent, and partly for the appeal to the romantic which the trip inspires. It is an arduous climb however, especially if the railroad is followed. This route is twice as long as another which is more direct but steeper. The station yet remains with its worm-eaten timbers, and the ruins of the tower lie where they first fell. It is a scene of almost primitive wildness and not far from the site of the tower is a precipice with an almost sheer decent into the valley below. From this point Lancaster county, called by many "the Garden Spot of Pennsylvania," is laid out like a panorama; and the other views that are to be had will repay the climber.

[&]quot;So wise, so young, they say, do ne'er live long."—Roger Hartz

Lake Conewago should next claim our attention. It is not a natural lake, and its chief claim to beauty lies in the fact that it is surrounded on two sides by wooded shores. It is more especially beautiful in the early morning, when with scarcely a ripple on its surface, the sky and trees are reflected in it; and in the evening, when the sun is setting behind the mountain, and casts a mellow glow over the whole scene. It is quite large, and many boats ply up and down on it during the summer.

Mt. Gretna is famed more than anything else as being the seat of the Pennsylvania Chautauqua. The Chautauqua grounds lie on an opposite slope of the mountain to the picnic grounds, the two being separated by a narrow ravine. Here everything has been done to maintain rustic simplicity as much as possible, both in the arrangement and construction of the cottages, and in the ornamentation of the grounds. Ferns, etc., are allowed to grow naturally, and there is little to remind those living there of the town or city from which they came.

No doubt many things might be done to beautify these grounds but in this last respect they surpass the camp-meeting grounds which lie directly opposite to them. The cottages there are laid out in a more orderly fashion—almost too orderly. And in the ornamentation of the grounds, there has been too much striving to fill up almost every conceivable space, with little flower, and fern gardens, laid ont in the form of stars, crescents, circles, etc. However it is pleasant to wander through the streets of this little mountain town, and the heart of the worshipper is no doubt nearer its Maker here than in the crowded city.

[&]quot;He shall set before them paths of righteousness."—Linchaugh.

These are but a few impressions of this beautiful spot in the South Mountains. Nothing has been said of the pleasant shady walks, with the trees arching overhead, the clear streams and rustic bridges, and springs of the purest of water, the wild flowers, and the cool depths of the forest surrounding it on all sides. If you visit it there is not a moment of your time that need be dull. There are unexpected surprises in store for those who delve into the woods, and interesting things happening on all sides for those who keep their eyes open.

Will you join the brotherhood of mountain rovers and make Mt. Gretna a mecca worthy of a pilgrimage for yourself, even when far away?

"Her infinite variety."—Margarct Berlin.

The A. B. C. of L. V. C.

A is for Appy, the other one's brother, Who started from home, and didn't get farther.

B is for Bonus, whose right name is Clyde, He watches his chance to steal a car ride.

C is for Clippinger, the bishop's great guest, To visit down there he wears a white vest.

D is for Deitzler, either one or the other, Their fathers, they say had the same mother.

E is for Engle, the choice of the few, All are related, so any will do.

F is for Faus, a well behaved man, Who'll do for others, whatever he ean.

G is for Graybill, a junior from town, In making of pietures, he won a renown.

H is for Hershey, a prominent name, Which up there in Derry is winning great lame.

I is for Ivan, whom we used to call Giant, He some day may be a second old Bryant.

J is for John, Jimmy, Jacob and Jack, Four fellows whose heads never will crack.

K is for Kaufmann, a man all around, From his head in the air to his feet on the ground.

L is for Light, or often called Ray, Who takes a chew, ten times a day.

M is for Mathias, the brightest in College, And here it is said, be got all his knowledge. N is for night, when fellows go out. Playing their tricks and running about.

• is for Oldham, either one of the four, If you know one, you'll soon learn to know more.

P is for Peters, a senior this year, A man who never drank any beer.

Q is for Quiet, which is Denver Herr's call, He begins many subjects, but thats about all.

R is for Richard, whose nickname is Diek, He'll tell you stories, until you get sick.

S is for Stout Stanley Snyder, Whose pants are cut wider and wider.

T is for Triest, the Lebanon man. Who missed the car, the time that he ran.

U is for Us, the great old class, Which no other could yet surpass.

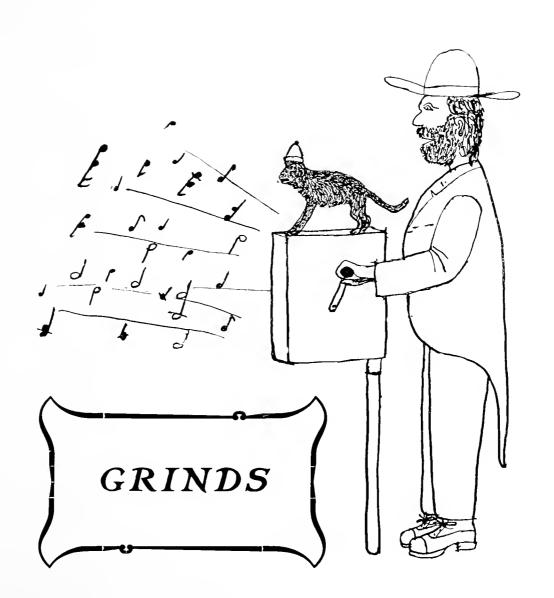

V is for Victory, the thing which we won, When on the cupola, we had so much fun.

W is for Wise, a name for our class, In all kinds of work no one will surpass.

X is some value, of any kind Yet it puzzles a senior, its value to find.

Y is for York, where many come from, That's the crowd that never drank rum.

Z is for Znek, a worthy true name, Hoover will tell exactly the same.

Announcement

On Account of the Continued Annual Loss of Between $500 and $700 on the Running of the Dining Hall, the Authorities of the College Propose to Open

A Restaurant

To Supply Students with Such Things Which They Usually Buy at DOWN-TOWN RESTAURANTS.

Students will be supplied with Sandwiches, Pies, Cakes, Etc.,

At Reasonable Rates,

and are requested to patronize it. ##This is an unwritten law of the College.##

"I will teach pleasant methods of salvation."—Showers.

Suppose

Peters cut out Mathias. Peiffer recited in Latin. Stanley Snyder told you a lie. Maxwell would lead Y. M. C. A. Gehr got enough to eat, for once, Rider showed some Senior dignity. Seitz would be caught "spooning." Miss Kauffman would say something. Beatty boasted about his engagement. Prof. Schlichter assigned a short lesson. You met Clippinger when he was drunk. Max Snyder joined the York County Club. Hoover and Miss Zuck were seen together. Andrews became soloist on the Glee Club. Prof. Daugherty favored the elective system. Mease became proprietor of the "Heilig House." Misses Powers and Shupe would giggle in Chapel. Madam Bressler would keep quiet in class when some one is reciting.

[&]quot;Her air, her manner, all who saw admired."—Erma Shupc.

Lebanon Valley Anthology

- "School for Scandal"—Seitz and Moyer
 "Much Ado About Nothing"—Kaufmann
- "Love's Labor Lost" -- Plummer
- "The Minister's Wooing"—Clippinger
 "The Rose of Granada"—Elizabeth Engle
- "Paul Revere's Ride"—Waughtel
- "The Castle of Indolence"—Jones
- "The Egotist"—Ditzler
- "The Vicar of Wakefield"—Linebaugh
- "The Rivals"—Mathias and Hoffman
- "Love for Love "-- Max and Charlotte

"Dooms Day"—Day of Examination

"The Sofa"—All Lovers

"The Blithedale Romance"—Peters

"Snow Bound"—The Junior-Senior Banquet

"The Mysteries of Udolpho"—Death League

"Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God"—The Sophomores

"They that stand high have many blasts to shake them."—Appenzellar.

— 154—

Sophomore Class Meeting

Friday, May 12, 1905

Sammy—I move, Mistah Pwesident, that we accept the baseball challenge of the insignificant Freshies. Eat-'em-Alive—I second that move.

Esby—O Sophs! Ye know how ingloriously we bit the dust in our class melee. How they whitewashed us in football—even fooling an experienced player like myself. Then they wiped the floor with us in basketball. Therefore, I am opposed.

Brick-Top Freddie—Them's my sentiments.

Vote Taken-No!!!!!!!

Herman-iac—This class is suffering from a severe case of frigidity of the pedal extremities. If you would have listened to ME, the only only, everything would have been all to the custard.

Eddie—I move we challenge them to a game of marbles.

Waltzy—I move we adhere to our appropriate motto "Please Go 'Way and Let Us Sleep."

Little Willie Herr—Mr. President, you know how industriously I worked to find out about the Freshmen sleigh-ride, and then we didn't do anything. Dear me! it seems as if we can't accomplish anything.

Adjourned.

YELL--"Purgatory, Hell, Heaven!" Take your choice, but the middle one is reserved for the Sophs.

What has become of the Freshmen challenge? If the chicken-hearted Sophs were not too slow to stop quick they would come and take their medicine like MEN. If they will not do this, henceforth and forever more let them GO 'WAY BACK AND SIT DOWN.

"Oh, vain to speak, to weep, to mourn;
"Oh, more than tears of blood can tell;"
Why won't the Sophs take up their horn
And blow themselves straight down to ——?

Say, Saphs, take the hint and FIRE UP!

Facts Not Known About '07

That Their internal machinery does not work well.

Because It is run by several cranks connected with their interior.

That Sophomore athletics rank high.

Because They take the highest scat on the grandstand.

That In Football they beat THEIR expectation.

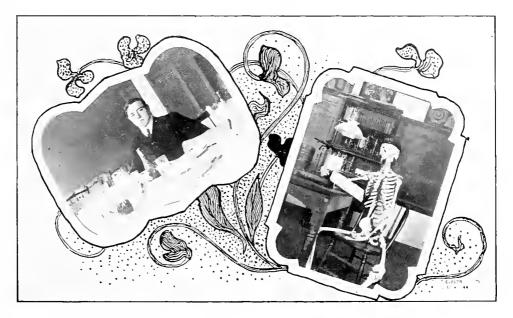

In Basketball they beat OURS.

But in Baseball they beat the DEVIL.

Junior Mirror

Name	Commonly Colled	Peculiar Chorocteristic	Favorite Resort	Will Be
Charles A. Fry	"Chas."	Sincere	Penitentiary	Physician
Robert B. Graybill	"Bobby"	Studious	Laboratory	Chemist
John B. Hambright	" Hammy "	Forward	Parlor	Teacher
Ora M. Harnish	" Preacher"	Pleasant	The Barn	Missionary
Ruth M. Hershey	"Betty"	Winning	Gridirou	Doctor
Elmer V. Hodges	" Hoddy	Sociable	The Kingdom	Musician
Merle M. Hoover	"Alice"	Effeminate	U. B. Parsonage	Asst. U. B. Pastor
J. Warren Kaufmann	" Rev."	Boisterous	Lebanon	Minister
Ray G. Light	"Judge"	Sensible	Cigar Store	Professor
John C. Rupp	"Johnny"	Industrious	Home, Sweet Home	Preacher
Irwin S. Seitz	"Lizzie"	Spoony	Practice Room	Bartender
Cyrus E. Shenk	"Shenkie"	Funny	"Journal" Office	Editor
Emanuel E. Snyder	" Mannie "	Short	Mechanicsburg	Banker
Max O. Snyder	"Fat "	Kindhearted	York County	Lawyer
Paul M. Spangler	" Baldy"	Stubborn	Latin Room	Insurance Agent
J. Curvin Strayer	" Col."	Modest	Mt. Joy	Teacher

The Result of a Four-Years Course at Our Dining Hall

Stanley Snyder, a Prep.

Mathias, a Senior.

Before and After Taking

--157--

Never

Never bet on the base ball game.

Never smoke a pipe on a porch roof.

Never believe Deacon Jones all he says.

Never ask Pres. Roop a question in Logic.

Never open your book during examination.

Never miss more than twenty classes a term.

Never go to class without being fully prepared.

Never spend too much time in the gymnasium.

Never overload your stomachs in the dining hall.

Never write home for money unless you need it.

Never jump a freight train to go to Harrisburg—as Gehr did.

Never neglect to obey the rules and regulations of Lebanon Valley College.

Never believe the fellows when they tell you that you are charged if you miss a meal.

[&]quot;Love better is than fame."—Park Esbenshade.

TROASTS

Class Room Notes

In Geometry.

Jones. The angle with its leg is equal to the angle of the other leg.

In Mathematics.

Singer. Professor, where can we procure a procurator [protractor]?

In Biology.

Prof. Derickson. Mr. Seitz, have you finished the yeast?

Seitz. I have it all out except the psychology.

In Education.

Prof. John. What influence does Christianity have upon vice?

Seitz. It elevates woman.

In Economics.

Prof. Shenk. What is Engel's Law?

Max Snyder. As a man's wealth increases his expenses for food decrease.

Prof. Mr. Light, what is your definition?

Light. As the family increases the expenses increase.

In Bible.

Professor. Miss Crowell, what books of the Bible do you like best? Miss Crowell. Matthew and John.

Class Room Notes

Prof. John asks a question in Philosophy.

Spangler (whispering) "Wish he'd ask me that. Any FOOL could answer THAT.

Prof. Lehman (in Trig., Linebaugh is explaining a formula) Do you understand that, Mr. Snyder?

Snyder, No.

Prof. Mr. Holler.

Holler, No.

Prof. Mr. McKenrick.

McKenrick. No.

Prof. Mr. Kaufmann.

Kaufmann. NO SIR.

Prof. Miss Knaub.

Miss Knaub. No.

Prof. Why, even Mr. Linebaugh understands that.

In English.

Mrs. Schlichter. Why is Cotton Mather the most pathetic figure in American Literature?

Max Snyder. Because he had an insane wife.

In Economics.

Prof. Shenk. Has anyone here seen the sweating system?

Seitz. Yes sir.

Prof. Where?

Seitz. Down home. (Laughter.)

Seitz. I mean, where I live.

In History.

Prof. What happened in the U. S. in 1832?

Light. The War of 1812.

[&]quot;His toil o'er books consumed the midnight oil."—Metzgar.

The "Deacon's" Masterpiece

WILLIAMSTOWN, Pa., January 1st, 1905.

DEAR PRES:—As per your circular letter I send you an itemized account of my personal losses in the fire. I might say that the amount given below is much under the real loss, but I am willing to lose the deficit in the interests of the "All-together for Lebanon Valley College movement." If you can advance me a dollar or so on my reimbursement I will greatly appreciate it, as the Xmas has left me a trifle tight in my finances. The following is a detailed list of my losses:

Schedule of Losses.	Bro't forward, $90 00 CLOTHING.
	Two full-dress suits 80 00
BOOKS.	One business suit 35 00
Four Bibles $ 8 oo	One bathing suit 10 00
Commentary, eight volumes 10 00	Miscellaneous clothing 25 00
Pilgrim's Progress 1 00	Trunk
Smith's Bible Dictionary, four vols 15 00	Furnishings of room 40 00
Life of T. DeWitt Talmage 1 00	Diamond ring 60 00
Set of Shakespeare, fifteen volumes. 15 00	Picture of sweetheart 40 00
School Books · · · · · · · 40 00	Miscellaneous 40 00
Forward, $90 00	Total, $435 00

Expect to be back for good, hard work January 11th.

Sincerely yours,

DEACON JONES.

The "Deacon's" Real Loss

BOOKS.

"Hoyle on Games"	$	50
"Mixed Drinks"		25
"Peck's Bad Boy" · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		01
"From the Ball Room to Hell"		25
"Sapho," unexpurgated edition		50
Ezra Kendall's Joke Book''		25
School Books		1 00
CLOTHING.
One football suit (bélonging to College)
Trunk		5 00
MISCELLANEOUS.
One pipe		Ω5
One pipe		10
One pipe		25
Two packages "Polar Bear"	-	10
Three packs of cards		75
Poker Chips		00
Bottles		03
One pint Jamaica ginger		25
One revolver		-
Total	- $14	F 63

[&]quot;Strange to the world, he wore a bashful look."—Buffington.

Freshman Blow-Out

Farmers Hotel.

Lebanon, Penn'a.

MENU

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 9 After Prayer Meeting.

TOASTS

Peanuts on Half-Shell

Onion Tops

Mellin's Food

Pap

Cup Cheese

Bretzels

Sauer Kraut

Cold Pork with Toadstools

Greenhead Snappers

Prunes

DRINKS

Milk in Bottles

Lager Beer

Juice of the Earth

Toastmaster, - - Bloomers Sprecher

Our Freshness, - Shabie Esbenshade

Our Shemales, - - Sissie Bender

Our Hemales. - - Cincinnati Peifer

The Blank Future, - - Billy Herr

Class Flower—Cabbage

Nosev Herr

Class Colors-Dirty White and Faded Red

MOTTO:

"Lord, What Fools We Mortals Be!"

'07 Class Members

Cholly Miller Bloomers Sprecher

Roscoe Gelir

Bull-Dog Kreider ('oo)

Red Lehman

Haus Mover

Sissy Ray Bender Abe Lincoln Bender

Farmer Sheesly Rube Peiffer Faint-Heart Knauss Lucile Mills

Windy Esbenshade Miss Schrover

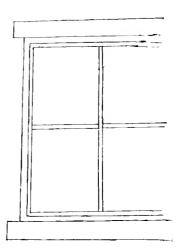

Miss Ethel Myers

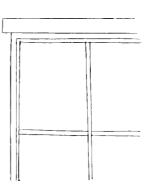

Miss Peiffer

Stanley Snyder,

Not being allowed to smoke in Kreider's house, smokes on the roof of the front porch. See Diary of January 27th.

Stray Pages from the College Catalogue

The grounds include about twenty acres in the very heart of the beautiful Lebanon Valley, Annville, within easy access of the railway station, postoffice, churches and the usual business places. Upon them are, or were, or will be erected nine commodious buildings.

South College, or the Ladies' Hall is a large brick building, entirely separate from the other premises, and under the immediate care of the preceptress, and in her absence of the Volunteer Band.* Beginning with September 1905, this building will be used as the home of Professor Spessard and his Academy boys.

North College, or the Administration building was originally eighty-four feet in length. In 1900 its length was doubled, this one of the nine buildings now standing was destroyed by fire, December 24. Instead of this building, there are four (that is, there will be, the gods being propitious) to be known as (a) the Administration Building, which will contain the President's office, Treasurer's office, eighteen Recitation rooms, etc., (b) Boys' Dormitory, (c) the Science hall, (d) Central Light and Heating Plant. These buildings are to be ready for occupancy by September 12, 1907.

The Engle Music Hall, erected in 1898-1899, the Carnegie Library Building, erected in 1904-1905, the Ladies' Dormitory, now nearly under roof, the Brightbill Gymnasium, now in course of construction, and the new athletic field with grandstand, together with University Hall,

*Composed entirely of young men.

[&]quot;There's mischief in this man."—Sprecher.

Country Club, and the building constructed by the students in response to Dr. Roop's appeal for "The All-together for Lebanon Valley College movement" complete the list of nine commodious buildings erected on the campus.

Health and Physical Culture.

Next to moral and religious character, the first of all things to be secured and cared for in the training of the young is sound physical health. Accordingly wise and liberal provision is made (hic) to preserve and promote it by daily exercise in the open air.*

For the benefit of Commencement visitors, we call attention to further information in the Catalogue.

The Biological Laboratory is on the first floor of the central building.

The Chemical Laboratory is in the basement of the Administration building.

The Qualitative and Quantitative Laboratory is on the second floor of the central building.

*When it is too cold out of doors they may do their spooning in the practice rooms of the Conservatory of Music.

[&]quot;The mind's the standard of the man."—Herrman.

Tobacco Chewers

Officers

Leading Chewer-Ray G. Light

Leading Spitter—M. O. Snyder

Greatest Borrower—Deacon Jones

Motto-" Take a little tobacco for the stomach's sake."

Yell-Mail-pouch, Bagpipe, Old Nut!

Polar Bear, Day and night, Mei Gott!

Members

Stanley Snyder Deacon Jones

Ray G. Light C. A. Fry

E. E. Snyder M. O. Snyder

Lawrence Maxwell C. F. James

"My friends! They are many."—Freddie Miller

-168-

L. V. C. Sayings.

A hint to the wise is sufficient,—Pres. Roop,

Truthfulness is the greatest virtue.—Deacon Jones,

I think boys are such lovely creatures.—Miss Shroyer.

A married man need not hunt any trouble.—John C. Rupp.

Say, fellows, my best idea of Hell is Monday morning,—Ray Light.

The joys of married life form a Heaven on earth.—Seitz and Hoover.

What is our next lesson in Economics? I lost my book.—Kaufmann.

An Epigram is something you have written on your tombstone.—E. M. Gehr.

We didn't look like pigs after the banquet, but we felt like them.—W. E. Herr.

I don't see any use for a Greek lexicon as long as you have an interlinear.—Faus.

Say, Mister, will you kindly tell me where I can find the Gymnasium?—New Student.

We should read our Bibles with the same interest with which we read our love-letters.—Miss E. E. Shroyer.

There's no use in a fellow's committing suicide because he is disappointed in love; there are plenty of others.—Miss Powers, [&]quot;Of their own merit modest men are dumb."-C. R. Bender.

Miscellaneous

Light (walking with a Professor). "Excuse me if I take a chew of tobacco." Prof. "That's all right. Help yourself."

Carrol Daugherty (in candy store). "Give me a stick of candy, for Jesus' sake, amen."

While the Glee Club stayed in Chambersburg, Rojahn and Showers started a kindergarten.

Sallie Kreider, in Greek. "Professor, I lost my book."

Prof. Spangler. "Perhaps Hinds and Noble stole it."

Miss Kreider. "Oh, I didn't mean that one."

A Conundrum. What kind of chocolate does Beddow like?

"Here We Go, Two By Two."

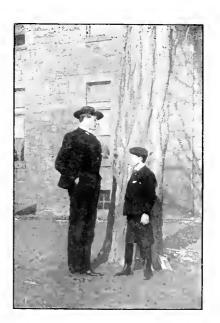

{	Hoover Miss Zuck	{	Seitz Miss Moyer				Hambright \ Miss Knaub ∫	E. E. Snyder \\Miss Harnish \	>
	{	Strayer Miss Myers		f	Max Snyder Miss Fisher	}	Brackbi Miss Go	7
§	Mathias Miss Crowell	-/	. Shenk s Goss)	J. C. Rupp Mrs. Rupp	}	Ed. Knauss) Miss Wolfe	Clippinger \ Miss Mills \	*

[&]quot;My friends! They are many."—Fred. Miller.

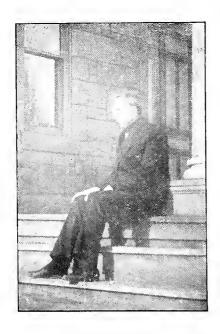

Who's Who at Lebanon Valley

The Two Extremes

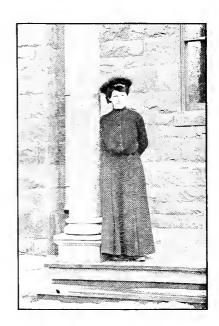

Appenzeliar and Ellis

[&]quot;He's as full of kindness as of learning."—Mathias.

The Brightest Boy Pearl E. Mathias

The Brightest Girl Alice L. Crowell

[&]quot;Away with him, he speaks Latin."—Gehr.

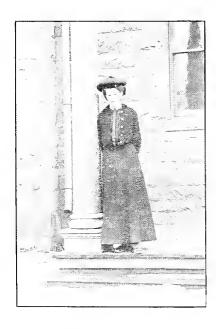

The Prettiest Girl Miss Ruth Hershey

The Handsomest Boy F. B. Plummer

[&]quot;She smiled on one and he was blessed"—Alice Zuck.

Most Original Girl Miss Shroyer

Best All Around Girl Miss Myers

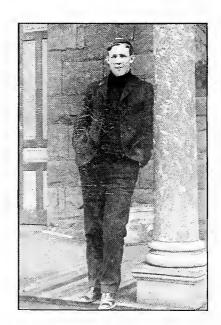

Happiest Girl Frances Engle

Best Girl Miss Harnish

Biggest Liar Jones

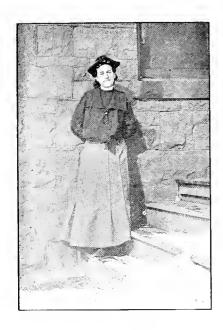

Best Athlete Beddow

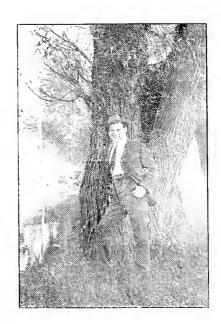

Greatest Ladies Man Hoover

Most Attractive Girl Miss Shupe

Most Popular Girl Lucile Mills

Wittiest Boy Max Snyder

DIARY 1904-1905

September

- 12. Fall Term begins. New faces arrive.
- 13. Regular work begins. New students, new faculty members.
- 14. Pres. Roop delivers address on "Altogether for Lebanon Valley College Movement."
- 15. Foot Ball practice begins in earnest.
- 16. Books scarce-Light tries hard to purchase a Bible.
- 17. Y. M. C. A. reception. New students introduced into Lebanon Valley Society.
- 18. Plummer returns to school, after "spading" all summer.
- 19. New candidates appear on the football field.
- 20. A farmer donates fifteen cats to the Biological Laboratory.
- 21. Kaufmann lost a text on Economics. Can't recite.
- 22. Rider and Clippinger go on their first spree.
- 23. Junior Class meeting-Bizarre Staff Election.
- 24. Miss Shroyer is heard singing "Showers of Blessing." We wonder why.
- 25. Beddow preaches his first sermon at Derry Church to a rather small audience.
- 26. College Forum makes its appearance.
- 27. Freshman Class organizes and distinguishes itself and extinguishes the Sophomores.
- 28. Weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth in Sophomoredom.

- 29. E. A. Faus is seen down at Shenk and Kinports buying some knitting needles and trying to match some baby ribbon.
- 30. The "Altogether for L. V. C. Movement" organized.

October

- 1. A season of remarkable flip-flops is now at its height among the regulars. Connie Oldham does a "lightning change" stunt.
- 2. The Bishop discovers Clipp doing some tootsy wootsy work on his front porch and kicks him out into the street.
- 3. Spangler uses an "automatic memory" in English.
- 4. Miss Kauffman dislocates her jaw bone talking to her new chum in her sleep.
- 5. J. C. Rupp makes faces at the President in Anthropology and is gently reprimanded.
- 6. Miss Shupe begins to make an impression upon the hearts of the fellows. Mathias is first victim but proves to have too much of Heaven about him.
- 7. Rojahn makes a flying trip to Columbia to see Daisy.
- 8. J. C. Strayer begins to have acute attacks of heart trouble. The girls begin to congratulate Miss Myers
- 9. Albert Snipe Brennaman tries to whip Stanley Snyder.
- 10. W. K. Wolf is caught travelling on the street with disreputable characters.
- 11. Frances Engle interviews Jimmy the Hall ghost.
- 12. Owen and Peters, the unfortunate lovers, form a joint consolation company.
- 13. Too much hard cider creates quite a lot of excitement on the second floor of the main building.
- 14. Leininger and Wolf open up a moonshine still in their room, but the odor gives them away.
- 15. The two heavy weights Rojahn and Waughtel have a ten round boxing match for the benefit of the Athletic Association. Rojahn's science wins.
- 16. Maxwell preaches a trial sermon in Lebanon.

- 17. Spessard begins his all day concerts in his room. The members of the Death League clinch their fists and look wise.
- 18. Wallace Bruce Amsbury Company in chapel.
- 19. Steelton 12; Reserves o. Too bad.
- 20. Dr. Cyrel D. Haas addresses students on the subject of "Missions." Miss Shroyer and Kaufmann shed tears.
- 21. Joe. Stanton gets his first washing done.
- 22. Jefferson Medical 6; L. V. C. 18. Max Snyder loses his religion.
- 23. Seitz preaches in Lebanon. Great fear among the sinners.
- 24. The Death League makes its debut. Brennaman and Spessard are sadder and wiser men.
- 25. Dr. W. W. Parsons of Indiana State Normal School spoke in chapel.
- 26. Dr. S. C. Schmucker of West Chester Normal visits L. V. C.
- 27. Peters holds a smoker and feet washing for the benefit of the dormitory boys.
- 28. Buffington and Klopp have a rough house in their room. Buffington has his spine dislocated.
- 29. Students cheer at Annville Mass meeting. Crowd of students go to Gettysburg to see the foot ball game.
- 30. Mathias gives his home church an example of his oratory.
- 31. Hallowe'en night. No tricks played, except by the preachers. Hallowe'en party at the Hall.

November.

- 1. "Peck's Bad Boy" in Lebanon. College well represented.
- 2. Faculty petitioned to close school on election day.
- 3. Seniors at Palmyra. Clipp and Ellen are happy.
- 4. Clio-Kalo Joint Session. Ladies locked in their hall for want of chaperon.
- 5. Football team up against it at Dickinson. Rider has his first experience as officiating clergyman at a wedding.

- 6. E. M. Gehr visits in Lebanon and is threatened with gout upon his return, not being used to such high living.
- 7. Pres. announces that all ladies leaving the hall must have chaperons.
- 8. Election Day. Many go to vote. Classes small.
- 9. Jones declares in History of Education that India is somewhere in the United States.
- 10. Pres. advises the Death League. Misses Fisher and Shroyer leave for the Y. W. C. A. Convention at Germantown. New athletic association constitution adopted.
- 11. Max receives letter number 1.
- 12. Max receives letter number 2.
- 13. Max threatens the life of the postmaster, because he does not open the post office on Sunday.
- 14. Max Snyder is serenaded on his way home from station. Max now has the smile that won't come off.
- 15. Frank Dixon's lecture. New couples.
- 16. Fry recites in anthropology. Class excused next week.
- 17. Had cold beef and potatoes for supper.
- 18. Bishop Kephart leads chapel.
- 19. Prof. Schlichter attends Madame Melba's concert in Philadelphia.
- 20. Sophs get their class pins and hold several meetings on the campus.
- 21. Work begins on Gym.
- 22. Light takes several days off to catch up.
- 23. Prof. Shively here. Kaufmann smiles. Blow out in Rider's room.
- 24. Work ends on Gym. Thanksgiving day. Clionian Literary Society Anniversary.
- 25. A short vacation. Many go home, returning next Monday.
- 26. Annual house cleaning on the third floor of Administration Building.
- 27. A few couples who didn't go home take a very pleasant stroll.

December.

- 1. Athletic Association meets and elects football manager. Gehr enters into a state of somnambulency in the Latin Class much to the annoyance of Prof. Daugherty.
- 2. Eber Ludwig begins to feel his first eager longing for Elizabeth Engle.
- 3. First division Senior Rhetorical. Audience left in the dark as to whether the rhetoricals will be held or not.
- 4. Herrman and Miss Meyers, Waughtel and Miss Enders borrow snow shoes for a jaunt to Lover's Leap.
- 5. Music students practicing in the Conservatory are called down by Prof. Oldham. Seitz seems to be the innocent cause of it all.
- 6. Glee Club makes its debut. They sing at Derry Church. The Clippingers almost freeze waiting at Palmyra.
- 7. Miss Shupe announced to a visitor that ten of the fellows have serious cases on her.

 Andrews and Peters congratulate each other.
- 8. Glee Club at Palmyra. Annyille better represented than Palmyra.
- 9. Scrub Glee Club organized with Max Snyder as leader. Andrews as soprano soloist, and Andrew Bender as bass soloist.
- o Second division, Senior Rhetorical. Prof. Schlichter's "Debby" and "Moses" make their first appearance before the public.
- 11. Kaufmann out on a drunk.
- 12. Monday morning, Light's heart is frozen.
- 13. Sammy Waughtel serenades Sallie Kreider and almost freezes.
- 14. Gohn is called before faculty. He is up against several charges.
- 15. Ray Bender begins to take voice culture.
- 16. Stanley Snyder licks W. K. Wolf for calling him "Feathers."
- 17. McKenrick begins the re-papering of his room.

- 8. Peters surprises everybody by going to church.
- 19. Examinations begin, 'nough said.
- 20. Junior class makes a touch down in Pedagogy I. Prof. John kicks the goal.
- 21. Last day of Fall term exams. Wolf and Leininger celebrate by getting drunk.
- 22. Fall term ends. O. B. Gohn has gone.
- 23. Students all safe at home.
- Christmas evening. Some rascal set fire to Administration building.
- 25. L. V. C. students receive bad news as an unwelcome Xmas gift.

January.

- 5. U. B. Conference at Annyille.
- 6. College to open on January 11.
- 11. Students return. No heat.
- 12. Students are assigned to the various homes of Annville, and throughout Berks, Dauphin and Lebanon counties.
- 13. Bishop Kephart lectures in Chapel.
- r4. Charley Peters and Solly Metzgar got lost on their way into chapel. They were found wandering about in the vicinity of Jerusalem avenue by Simon Funk, Chief of Police of Annville.
- 15. Herrman and Ray Bender make a raid on Shenk's pies after the Shenk family are sound asleep.
- 16. Prof. Lehman gives daily talks on astronomy.
- 17. Forum staff is photographed. Blazier's camera spoiled.
- 18. First organized body called together in Carnegie Library by Prof. Derickson.
- 19. Stanley Snyder reduces the time of his walk from Aaron Kreider's to 37 minutes.
- 20. Prof. Lehman sees Mercury.
- 21. Lester Appenzeller runs into and seriously damages the chandelier in Prof. McFadden's hall.

- 22. Sammy Waughtel is snowed in half-way between Prof. Spangler's and the Country Club. He is rescued by his chum, Showers, with the aid of a snow shovel.
- 23. A. K. Waltz buys two dozen assorted string-ties. They are great (?)
- 24. Trustee meeting. Building plans discussed.
- 25. Juniors give banquet to seniors at Colonial Hotel, Lebanon, are caught in blizzard and do not get home until morning.
- 26. Day of prayer for colleges. All students participate (?) Pres. notices absence of Juniors in Chapel.
- 27. Stanley Snyder, using the roof of Kreider's front porch as a smoking room, falls off and destroys ten feet of pavement and a panel of fence.
- 28. Basket ball team defeated by Chambersburg Academy at Lebanon. No practice, Athletic relations resumed with Albright.
- 29. Coach Gillis sleeps all day.
- 30. Sophomores have their pictures taken. Copy appears in current number of "Judge".
- 31. E. E. Snyder chews tobacco in English 3, and has an overflow.

February

- 1. Germaine, the magician bewitches students in the Auditorium
- 2. Semester examinations. Not one is caught ponying.
- 3. Peters lost in thought upon his return from Philosophy 8, absent mindedly walks past Shopes, and wades halfway across the Quittapahilla.
- 4. Ladies entertained by Prof. and Mrs. John, and Prof. and Mrs. McFadden. Girls report having a lovely time.
- 5. Firm of Knauss and Wolf now in active operation.
- 6. Fry improvises a cuspidor in the biological laboratory.
- 7. Sprecher makes a startling statement in Latin, "jubet vicissem."

- 8. Miss Shrover, upon return from a visit to Lebanon, is suffering from a sore lip.
- 9. Miss Bressler keeps quiet in Economics.
- 10. Arthur Spessard is hunting a girl, who can cook, bake, and do all kinds of housework.
- 11. Glee Club sings in Auditorium. Large audience. Reception to Glee Club after the concert. Ladies appear in evening (?) gowns.
- 12. Day of prayer for students.
- 13. Elizabeth Engle sends valentine to Bobby Graybill.
- 14. Several couples hear "Romeo and Juliet" in Harrisburg. Max sleeps too long and misses the train.
- 15. Gymnasium Drill.
- 16. Rev. S. M. Seyfert begins evangelistic services at the College.
- 17. Spangler recites in Latin.18. Faus talks to a girl. Light "bags" Greek.
- 19. Andrews tries for the United Brethren Church Choir.
- 20. Andrew Bender cuts his first class.
- 21. Everything quiet. Pres. is away.
- 22. Washington's Birthday. Deacon Jones, the truthful one, is seen wandering around with a hatchet.
- 23. Pearson lectures in chapel.
- 24. Esbenshade washes his hair and is mistaken for Shoomkoff, the man from Macedonia.
- 25. Miss Shrover didn't talk at the table.
- 26. Everybody (?) goes to church.
- 27. Buffington petitions Pres. to allow him to sit with the girls in chapel.
- 28. Seitz declares that a chair is universal in its nature.

March

- 1. Sophomores have a quiet (?) class meeting.
- 2. Blow out at the country club. Brackbill drunk.

- 3. Spangler "swears off" chewing tobacco.
- 4. Hoover takes a walk with Miss Zuck.
- 5. Emanuel and Ora have their first scrap.
- 6. Knauss and Seitz talk on the porch half an hour after Saint Cecelia. The door is locked and the girls get to their rooms by using the fire escape.
- 7. A wonder—Seitz does not accompany Lizzie to the hall.
- 8. Stanley Snyder and his new white Easter bonnet get caught in the rain. The hat melts.
- Kaufmann appears in English 3 with a new red necktie. "Solomon in all his glory was not arraved like one of these."
- 10. Junior Oratoricals are postponed until March 23 and 25.
- 11. Maxwell is elected captain of next year's basket ball team. Peters makes one of his bienmal visits to church.
- 12. Field Club organizes for strictly scientific (?) purposes.
- 13. Miss Crowell and Mathias join the club. Miss Crowell claims to be interested in snakes and Matty—well he's interested in Miss Crowell.
- 14. Strayer gets a case of cigars from Red Lion. Great rejoicing in the Junior class.
- 15. Reception to new students. Mathias and Miss Crowell entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March.
- 16. Baseball practice begins.
- 17. Philo-Clio joint session.
- 18. Glee Club in Mechanicsburg. Showers makes a hit.
- 19. Shenk goes home to see his mother (?)
- 20. Freshman English gives an entertainment to an invited audience.
- 21. Brenneman boys are taken for the gold dust twins by Prof. Stein.

- 22. Billy Herr holds' a party for his classmates to celebrate the return of his hair.
- 23. First division of Junior rhetoricals. Large (?) audience.
- 24. Fat Men vs. Lean Men basket ball game. Stanley Snyder and Rojahn are the stars of their respective sides.
- 25. Miss Spayd visits the Ladies' Hall. Berry makes a hasty exit from the breakfast table. It seems to be a case of "Betsy and I are out." Second division of Junior rhetoricals.
- 26. Juniors all take a rest after their rhetoricals.
- 27. Saint Cecilia Society's Public Concert.
- 28. Winter term exams.
- 29. More Exams. Seitz anxious to go home, tenderly bids Lizzie farewell.
- 30. Easter vacation begins.

$oldsymbol{April}$

- 4. Erb visits Chambersburg to hear the Glee Club Concert (?)
- 5. Cornerstone of new Ladies' Hall laid.
- 6. Work begins for Spring Term. Normalites make their appearance.
- 7. Ladies of Annville hold a Bazaar in Conservatory. Students take the chance of getting something to eat.
- 8. Gehr overeats himself at the Bazaar and has to be carried home on a stretcher. Lebanon Valley—Gettysburg game.
- 9. All the regulars go walking. Mathias proposes to Miss Crowell and gets turned down.
- 10. Miss McCormick is "campused" for a week.
- 11. Long patches his trousers.
- 12. Scrub Glee Club gives a concert at Cleona. Andrews makes a hit.
- 13. Arndt becomes the star (?) of the baseball nine.
- 14. Anniversary of the Kalozetean Literary Society. Fred Miller installed as a Rabbi.

- 15. Lebanon Valley defeats the Indians at Annville by a score of 3 to 1.
- 16. Hambright and Neda are seen together out at Steinmetz's. Mirable dictu.
- 17. Rupp begins house cleaning. Country Club assists.
- 18. Herrman has his hair cut. College barber is laid up for the rest of the week.
- 19. Lebanon Valley defeated by Mercersburg.
- 20. Pres. and Mrs. Roop give reception to Junior class.
- 21. Billy Herr discovers that his hair which had been cut short is coming out in Paderewski fashion.
- 22. Dining Hall lays in a supply of eggs.
- 23. Grand display of Easter bonnets by the hall girls. Miss Shroyer's bonnet wins first prize-
- 24. Hodges grows tired of his life of single blessedness.
- 25. Gehr takes Miss Goss home from prayer meeting.
- 26. Ed. Knauss petitions the faculty to have a sofa put into the new reading room.
- 27. Four couples of the school receive "honorable mention" from Pres. in chapel.
- 28. Miss Frances Engle receives a visit from Jimmy the Ladies' Hall ghost.
- 29. Lebanon Valley defeated by Indians at Carlisle.
- 30. Seitz walks to Campbelltown to see Lizzie. Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel take the children out for an afternoon walk.

May

1. Good-bye.

A SAD DOWNFALL

A Japanese doll on the mantel sat;

She was pretty and neat and good and fair,

And cute from her feet to the queer litt le mat,

On the top of her head, which she called her hair.

And here she dwelt the whole day long,
One would think both free from cares and fears,
But instead, alas, it had all gone wrong,
And her little slant eyes were filled with tears.

For across the mantel broad and bare, Resplendent in gilt and crimson paint, With his eyes upturned in silent prayer, Stood a holy, white robed, china saint.

And the doll with a love that she could not hide Gave him all of her little sawdust heart. And so through the day she sorrowed and sighed, for, well, they were just three feet apart. But the saint, he fixed his thoughts above, He gave her only the "stony stare," How could he know aught of love? For he, you see, was of earthenware.

Well, a careless maid once passed that way,
Alas for the saint, alas for the doll.
A swish of the duster, a cry of dismay,
A crash and a smash and that was all.

When the poor little Jap came out of her faint, She looked o'er the edge, his form to see. And found that like many another saint He was not what he was cracked up to be. Well she checked her grief and got a case,

—Oh my! what things a girl will do—

On a wooden soldier's painted face,

She's sure he's solid through and through.

MORAL

Now listen my lady of every degree,

If you have a "saint" don't do like she,

For you'll find when he falls which is frequently,

That he's not what he was cracked up to be.

Facts

Waughtel gets so far ahead of his class at times that he must stay out of college until the others catch up to him.

Light spends more time in thinking and talking of the girls than his lessons.

James can't understand how he always gets so many demerits. He can account for only forty-eight when the faculty has credited him with fifty.

The Seniors lost their temper when Professor Daugherty read the announcement of the Sophomore class meeting in chapel.

Showers spoke ten minutes in answering a question in Philosophy at the end of which time Prof. John says, "And now Mr. Showers, have you really said anything?" "No, sir," replied Showers.

Owen's reason for studying on Sunday,—If a man is justified in helping the ass out of the pit on the Sabbath, how much more would the ass be justified in helping himself out.

Who did Pauxtis have at the dance at Hummelstown? Ask Beddow.

Moses and Debby

"A family consists of a man, his wife and his cats."-Prof. Schlichter.

The winter sun, strangely beautiful in its deep crimson glow, had sunk slowly into a mass of dull gray clouds that were piled up in the western horizon, and the moon had taken its place in the firmament and cast a mellow glow upon the grim-looking and charred walls of the Administration building. The occupants of University Hall were busily engaged in study. All was quiet and the numbling of busy students was audible, broken only by an occasional splash of tobacco jnice aimed at a cuspidor by Lichty and the buzz-saw-like-snore of Billow stretched upon a bed in an up-stair room. Billie Herr had kissed his mamma and said "Good Night," and Carroll Daugherty pronounced his evening prayer and was securely tucked in his little crib Farther down the avenue lover and sweetheart just finished holding hands and the good-night kiss was implanted upon the girl's lips.

The stars twinkled and the moon played hide and seek with the fleeting clouds which overhing the heavens. Everybody on the avenue had turned in for the night except Moses and Debby and they were out by permission of their master, who was busily engaged in preparing a test in French and anxiously awaiting their return.

Moses and Debby wandered along the avenue—up and down—and seemed monarch of all they surveyed. They crossed the campus to the ruins of Administration hall. No sounds of revelry of students greeted their ears and the meeting place of lovers beneath the trees now seemed like a rendezvous for the spirits of the dead. All was dark and no figures passed to and fro. Moses and Debby continued their perambulations among the ruins and unexpectedly twenty-six sparkling eyes met theirs in close proximity. Thirteen cats hissed and spit, and Moses and Debby, forgetting their training, did the same. "Meow, Meow—ow!" broke the indescribable silence, the "man in the moon" grinned and hid behind a cloud, and a cat fight was on. Moses and Debby succeeded in reaching their master's home, but not without serious results. When the door was opened to the belated wanderers, their master noticed tears trickling down Debby's cheeks besides part of her tail being gone. Moses had his left ear slit and numerous cuts upon his anatomy. Moses and Debby were taken to the bath room, washed and court plaster placed upon the cuts resulting from the unequal contest.

During the cat-astrophe there was the wildest commotion among the occupants of University Hall. Maxwell swallowed a tobacco quid in the excitement. Andrews roused from his sleep yelled, "Fire!" and Wolf fell from his cot in the hallway and the noise somewhat resembled an earthquake.

Final Remarks

Now as we have finished our arduous task we would give a few bits of advice to the readers of this book.

If you were pleased with the contents, tell the Editor. If you were not pleased tell the office boy, Max Snyder, giving a detailed list of your reasons.

If you were'nt roasted forgive us, for at times, we knew not how to roast you.

If you did'nt see the point in our jokes, ask Prof. John, and it will be plainly explained.

We have endeavored to stick to facts as far as possible and if we have made a few slight errors in dates don't inform us.

[&]quot;He is a well made man who has good determination."-Max Lehman

THE END

Contents

Title Page	I	Christian Associations	72-78
Dedication	2-3	Y. W. C. A	71-75
Biography Prof. Lehman	4-6	Y. M. C. A	76 - 78
Bizarre Staff	7	Star Course	79
Preface	7	The Forum	80-82
Ruins Adminstration Building	9	Literary Societies	83
College Calendar	10	Clionian	84-86
Board of Trustees	11-12	Philokosmian	87-88
Old Administration Building	13	Kalozetean	90-92
Faculty and Officers	14 - 24	St. Cecelia	93-95
Ladies' Dormitory	25	Lebanon Valley College Glee Club	96 - 98
Graduate Students	27	Athleties	99
Carnegie Library	23	Football	101
Classes	29	Basketball	105
Senior	30-34	Baseball ,	110
Junior	35-42	Class Athletics	111
Sophomore	43-51	Banquets and Programs	113
Freshmen	52 - 56	Organizations	123
Special Students	57	Literary	135
Academy Students	58-60	Grinds	151
Academy Building	61	Roasts	159
Teachers' Preparatory Department	62	Who's Who at Lebanon Valley	171
Department of Elecution	63	Diary	179
Music Seniors	64-66	Facts	191
Department of Music	67-69	Moses and Debby	192
Department of Art	70	Final Remarks	194
Photograph Art Department	71	The End	195

Valley College LEBANON

=ANNVILLE, PA.=

FALL TERM BEGINS SEPT. 12, 1905 | WINTER TERM BEGINS JAN. 4, 1906

*HIS College founded in 1866 and chartered with full university privileges by our State Legislature in 1867, stands for character, high scholarship and noble manhood and womanhood. Here choice young people from various States come into competition and fellowship with one another, and with teachers of high character, sound learning and progressive methods and ideas.

THE COLLEGE DEPARTMENT

Offers five Groups of Studies leading to the Degrees of Bachelor of Arts. The groups bear the names of the leading subjects included in them. They are: The Classical Group, the Philosophical Group, the Chemical-Biological group, the Historical-Political Group, and the Modern Language Group.

THE ACADEMY DEPARTMENT

Covers the work of the Standard High and Normal Schools and Academies, and prepares for College, Teaching and Business.

THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

Offers complete courses in Pianoforte, Voice, Organ, Harmony, etc., after methods of the foremost European Conservatories. The various branches of art are also taught. Elocution is also made a specialty.

Fourteen Free Scholarships to honor graduates of Academies, High and Normal Schools. Large teaching force. Location healthful and beautiful. Fine new buildings. Large athletic field. Modern conveniences. Tuition in all courses low. Board and other charges reasonable.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION ADDRESS

HERVIN U. ROOP, Ph.D., LL.D., President,

We Cater for Weddings and social Events

But if you prefer doing it, we supply the Finest Ices, Fancy Cakes, Salted Nuts, and Confections

Out-of-Town Orders Solicited

Dietrich's

1015 North 3d Street 225 Market Street

Barrisburg

Hatsmith Hatman

19 North Chird Street

harrisburg, Pa.

The Central Printing and Publishing House

Che Central Book Store

W. A. LAVERTY, MGR

325 Market St., Harrisburg, Pa.

Books Stationery Book Binding Printing and Engraving -- Artists' Materials---Draughtmen's Supplies

Watches

For Ladies and Gentlemen

Watches that will be a credit to the bearer Plain or beautifully engraved cases containing reliable movements, fully guaranteed

E. G. HOOVER
HARRISBURG, PA.

s Boo

BUFFA

Our Success

Is due to the care which all our work receives

M.a. Blazien

Blazier's Studio

829 Cumberland St.,

LEBANON, PA

H. H. KREIDER

JOHN E. HERR

KREIDER & GO.,

DEALERS IN

Coal, Grain, Seed, Salt and Lumber

Office and yards on Railroad St., ANNVILLE, PA.

Both 'Phones

DEALER IN

Furniture

Undertaking and Embalming a Specialty

Will & Santz

Dealers In

Fancy Groceries, Notions,

Queensware, Confections, Etc.

Main Street, Annville, Pa.

E. B. Marshall, M. D.

34 East Main Street

ANNVILLE,

Cotrell & Leonard

ALBANY, N.Y.

MAKERS OF

Gowns and Hoods

To the American Colleges and Universities

Class Contracts a Specialty Rich Gowns for Pulpit and Bench

The Stewart & Steen Co.

College Engravers and Printers

1024 Arch St.

Philadelphia

Makers of College and Class-Day Invitations, Stationery, Programs, Banquet Menus, Crests and Coats-of-Arms, Class Pins and Buttons.

Medals for Field-Day Sports.

Merle M. Hoover,

Representative at Lebanon Valley College.

ESTABLISHED 1865

A. B. FELGEMAKER MANUFACTURER OF

CHURCH ORGANS

Main Office and Works - - - ERIE, PA.

We are one of the FEW old established builders of Pipe Organs exclusively in the United States, and we have a reputation unsurpassed for excellence of workmanship and materials, and for business integrity.

The following is from a letter (unsolicited) received by us recently from the pastor of Salem U. B. Church, Lebanon, Pa., where we placed an organ in November, '04:

"The organ is ready for use. It is with pleasure that we say that it has met every article of the contract. More than that—it has surpassed our expectations."

If contemplating purchase of a new organ, send for catalogue giving list of nearly 900 organs built by us.

S.M. Shenk's Bakery

Has Always on Hand

Fresh Bread, Cakes, and Rolls

ANNVILLE, PA.

One Door West of Pennsylvania House

M. F. Batdorf

Dealer In

Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings

Agents For

W. L. DOUGLAS SHOES, For Man, $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50 RADCLIFFE SHOES For Women, $2.50, and $3.00.

ANNVILLE,

PA.

WEST END STORE

JNO. S. SHOPE, Prop.

Dealer In

BOOTS, SHOES, GENT'S FURNISHINGS, ETC.,

ANNVILLE,

PENN'A.

Paper . and Shade . Hanging a . Specialty

Central Book Room

School Cext Books College

New, Second-Hand, and Shelf-Worn

Students' Supplies Wall Paper Window Shades

harry Light

Annville, Pa.

M. H. SHAUD

Watches and Jewelry

FINE EQNDEES and FRUIT

Fartics Supplied With See Gream West Main Street. ANNVSEES, Pa Joseph G. Kelehner,

DAILY MEAT MARKET OF

HOME DRESSED MEATS

pa

Also a Full Line of Smoked Meats

Annville - - -

Thos. H. Elliot

Twenty-Five Years Experience

Custom Hand-made SHOES

MENDING A SPECIALTY, RUBBER GOODS

Done to a Perfection

Corner Main and White Oak Streets, ANNVILLE, PA.

I Correct Visual Defects With the Latest Methods Known to Optical SCIENCE

Without Drops

Examination FREE, Broken Uenses Replaced, Charges very Reasonable

D. B. SHIFFER,

Graduate Optician

Also Fine Watch Repairing.

ANNVILLE, PA.

Jacob Sargent

Style, Fit and Workmanship Guaranteed

18-20 West Main Street, Annville, La.

Agency for International Jailoring Co.

H Welcome Gift in any home The Most Popular College Songs - - $.50 50 New College Songs - - . 50 Songs of the WESTERN Colleges - - 1.50 Songs of the EASTERN Colleges - - 1.25 Songs of the Ligaand Nation - - 50 100 New Kindergarten Songs - - 50 School Songs with College Flavor - 50 COLLEGE SONGS

New Songs for College Glee Clubs

Songs of the University of Pennsylvania
Songs of the University of Michigan
Songs of Washington and Jefferson College
Songs of Haverford College

At Bookstores, Music Dealers, or the Publishe

hinds, Noble & Eldredge 31-33-35 West 15th St. Rew York Elty

THE CHAS. H. ELLIOTT CO.

The Largest College Engraving House in the World

WORKS: 17th Street and Lehigh Avenue, - - - PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Commencement Invitations

and Class Day Programs

DANCE PROGRAMS AND INVITATIONS WEDDING INVITATIONS
MENUS CLASS PINS and MEDALS (Write for Catalogue)

CLASS AND FRATERNITY INSERTS FOR ANNUALS

CLASS AND FRATERNITY STATIONERY MAKERS OF SUPERIOR HALF-TONES CALLING CARDS (Special Terms to Students)

1108 Chestnut St., Philadelphia

for Half Tone and Photo Engraving. We have our own Photograph Gallery

Fashionable Engraving

LEADING HOUSE FOR AND -Stationery

BEPORE ORDERING ELSEWHERE COMPARE SAMPLES College, School and Wedding Invitations Dance Programs, Menus

B

8

2

8

8

2

8

8

8

8

8

FINE ENGRAVING OF ALL KINDS

> monument of virtue. and Write your name by kindness, love and mergy on the hearts of the thouswhen you write, use a leave behind termans day by day, and you come in contact you

(ountain

L.E.Waterman CO
173 Broadway, New York
8 School St. Boston 160 State St. Chicago 138 Montgomery St., Sanfoncisco
12 Golden Lano London 107 St. James St., Montreal

HARRY M. SCHOTT

PRACTICAL HAIR-CUTTER

9th and Chestnut Sts., LEBANON, PA.

H. H. Heilman

MERCHANT TAILOR

400 N. Ninth St.,

LEBANON, PA.

M. H. SMITH

L. G. BOWMAN

CARPETS. - RUGS. - MATTINGS

Draperies, Window Shades and Awnings, Floor Oil Cloth and Linoleum, Carpets Lifted, Cleaned, And Re-Laid at the Lowest Rrices

758 Cumberland St.

GREAT BARGAINS

Gents' Furnishings

-IN-

Ready-Made Clothing

S. F. ENGLE.

Near Rail Road Depot PALMYRA, PA,

For Fine Vailoring

So To

B. F. Ward

Lebanon

Penn'a.

J. B. Oberholtzer

Colonial hotel

Class Banquets a Specialty.

LEBANON, PA. South 8th Street,

Lebanon, Pa.

Pianos

From $200 to $2000

On Your Own Terms

THE FOLLOWING MAKES TO SELECT FROM

Steinway	-		-		-		as lov	v as	$500
Kranich &	Baclı			-		-	as lov	v as	400
Krakaurer	-		-		-		as lov	v as	350
Fischer		-		-		-	as lov	v as	325
Franklin	-		-		-		as lov	v as	290
Kroeger -		-		-		-	as lov	v as	250
Keystone	-		-		-		as lov	v as	250
Schiller -				-		-	as lov	v as	200

Second-Hand Instruments

Always on Hand

Organs	-	-	-		as	low	as	15.00
Pianos	-	-		-	as	low	as	40.00

In justice to yourself you can not afford to overlook this line of pianos when you are ready for one. Write us for catalogues, or call at our warerooms.

Miller Organ and Piano Co.,

828 Cumberland St.,

Lebanon, Pa.

Standard Steam Laundry and Scouring Works

27 North Seventh Street, LEBANON, PA.

Represented at Lebanon Valley by E. M. Gehr

Erb & Craumer,

HATTERS AND MEN FURNISHERS

Knox, Stetson, and Howard HATS

Manhattan Shirts, Paris Dress Shirts Custom Shirts

Always the latest and best.

777 Cumberland St.,

Lebanon, Pa.

Success To All Who Buy Their Furnishings

Ladies-Gents Shenk & Kinports

Sole Agents for Packard Shoes Sterling and Seal Brand Hats Cluett and Monarch Shirts Arrow Brand Collars and Cuffs Lco New York Neckwear LARGEST STOCK ANNVILLE
Prices
Quality
Style
Right

Shay's is Students' Headquarters

Tee Cream 20 20 20 20 20 7ine Candies
Choice Fruits 20 20 20 20 Nuts
Cigars 20 20 and 20 20 Cobacco
Oysters 20 in 20 All 20 Styles
Families Supplied with Oysters and Ice Cream
East 20 Main 20 Street 20 Annuille 20 Pa.

SHOES NEATLY REPAIRED Reasonable Prices

Annville, Pa B. B. Eliott

J.C.Hauer's Sons

843-845 Cumberland Street, Lebanon, Pa.

All Kinds of Leaf and Manufactured Tobaccos

Domestic and Imported Cigars

Smoke

Caramita

and

George Steitz

Cigars

The Recent Advances in Photography

The Best Work of Jo=Day

Have Been Rapid and Far=Reaching.

Is Vastly Superior

To That of a Few Years Ago.

The Finest Materials and Most Modern Methods

Give an Unsurpassed Elegance to the Photos from

Gates' Studio,

142 North Eighth St., Lebanon. - Discount to Students

J. H. CILLEY

J. L. BENNETCH

CILLEY & BENNETCH

FINE FOOTWEAR

Exclusive Agents for

M. A. PACKARD and KEITH KONQUERORS FOR MEN DOROTHY DODD FOR LADIES

Ten Per cent Discount to Students

16 North Ninth Street,

LEBANON, PA.

THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.,

Of New York

OLDEST IN AMERICA, LARGEST IN THE WORLD

Assets are 440 Million Dollars. Paid to its Policy Holders for claims of kinds are 665 Million Dollars For information on any of its Life or Investment Policies, Address

M. P. Spangler, Agt.,

Nutting Building

LEBANON, PA.

The College Boys Buy the Famous

W. L. Douglas Shoes

$3.00 and $3.50

THE PHILADELPHIA SHOE STORE

M. COHEN & SON, Props., Sole Agents

735 Cumberland St.,

LEBANON, PA.

Up-To-Date Tailoring

Everything up-to-date in Ladies' and Sentlemen's Tailoring. Largest and Finest Stock of Cloths. Best Cutter and Makers at

C. E. Rauch's, 10th and Cumberland Sts., Lobanon, Ponn'a.

ESTABLISHED 1892

STEPHEN LANE FOLGER

180 BROADWAY

NEW YORK

WATCHES DIAMONDS
JEWELRY

CLUB AND COLLEGE PINS AND RINGS

GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS

The Best Stock and Largest Assortment in town. Everything for Men, Boys and Children from head to foot.

Glothing Furnishing Goods Hats and Shoes

TEvery garment guaranteed. Texclusive agents for the celebrated Alfred Benjamin & Co., and Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothing.

Mann's, The Big Store

815-17-19 Cumberland St., LEBANON, PA

Gaps and Gowns

MADE TO ORDER AND RENTED

Pennants For all Colleges and Fraternities Carried in Stock

Fobs, Pins, Medals

S. H. Waughtel, Student Agent

Established 1860

None But First-Class Companies Represented

J. Henry Miller's

General Insurance Agency

No. 812 Willow Street Lebanon, Pa.

Fire Realth Accident
Life Cyclone Live Stock
Boiler Fidetity Plate Slass

A. G. Spalding & Bros

Largest Manufacturers in the World of Official Athletic Supplies.

ATHLETIC IMPLEMENTS BASE BALL BASKET BALL GOLF BOXING GLOVES

STRIKING BAGS GYMNASIUM GOODS Plans and Blue Prints of Gymnasium Paraphernalia furnished upon request.

Spalding's Trade Mark Every base ball managoods are the acme of perfection; accept no goods that are not the Spalding kind; there is no substitute for a Spalding article.

ger should send at once for a copy of Spalding's Spring and Summer Catalogue.

It's Free

SPALDING'S ATHLETIC ALMANAC FOR 1905

Edited by JAMES E. SULLIVAN,

Contains the Official Athletic Records for 1904 and the Ollicial Report of the Olympic Games. PRICE 10 CENTS PER COPY.

NEW YORK PHILADELPHIA BUFFALO

BOSTON

BALTIMORE WASHINGTON MONTREAL, CAN.

DENVER PITTSBURG

A. G. Spalding & Bros.

MINNEAPOLIS SYRACUSE

CHICAGO ST. LOUIS KANSAS CITY SAN FRANCISCO

LONDON, ENG,

Kodaks, Cameras and Supplies

PRINTING and DEVELOPING for AMATEURS

Pictures and Picture Frames

Souvenir Post-Cards and Albums

Up-to-Date Novelties

Harpel's Stores Stores Stores Stores LEBANON, PA.

Frank L. Hutter

Printon Paper Ruler

Book Binder Blank Book Maker

329 Market Street

Harrisburg, Pa.

Mish's Greenhouses

Gut Flowers and Decorations

For Weddings Parties Funerals

Chestnut and 4th Sts. LEBANON, PA.

Hoffman Bros.

EXCLUSIVE AGENTS FOR

Walkover Shoes Sorosis

806 Cumberland St., Lebanon, Pa.

Ten Per Cent. Discount to Students

J. S. BASHORE

(Successor to Isaac Wolf & Co.)

The Only One-Price

CLOTHIER

No. 828 Cumberland Street Lebanon, Pa.

C. & H. J. SHENK

Imported and Domestic

DRY-GOODS

Notions, Ladies' Gloaks and Suits

Men's Furnishings

816-22 Cumb. St.,

LEBANON, PA.

Established 1852

Dr. Seo. Ross & Co. Druggists

Opposite Court House,

Labanon, Pa.

We have been supplying the Community for more than Fifty Years and if you want

Pure Drugs and Medicines

we can supply you. We have everything in DRUGS MEDICINES
PERFUMERY
HAIR AND TOOTH BRUSHES
TOILET SOAPS, Etc. Etc.

Remember the Place-Opposite the Court House

SANDO

Dry Goods and Notions
GENTS' FURNISHINGS, ETC.

PETER SANDO 757-759 Cumb. St., LEBANON, PA.

D. A. Frantz

Furniture Bazaar

Largest in the City

732-734 Cumberland St.,

Lebanon, Pa.

Subscribe for the

All the College News

50 Cents Per Year

Journal Publishing Company

Printers and Publishers

Annville, Penn'a

Book and Job Printing

¶ COLLEGE PRINTING a Specialty. ¶ THIS BOOK is a sample of our artistic work. ¶ Let us figure on your next order. We will show you what we are able to do in Quality and Price. ¶ Both Telephones.

	•

				,
	4
		3

			Ý
		•

